De Gaulle Algeria Program Wins Slim Vote Margin

Abstentions Cut Endorsement Below Goal In Referendum

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle's Algerian program won the approval of 54 per cent of the voters of France and Algeria yesterday, short of the 65 per cent the president reportedly hoped for.

Final official returns gave De Gaulle a majority of 75.25 per cent of the votes cast in France and 65.4 per cent in Algeria. But nearly 40 per cent of the voters in Algeria stayed home, and most of the abstentions were Moslems. In France 22.5 per cent did not vote.

CONSIDERED MANDATE
Although abstentions cut the "yes" vote below the endorsement of De Gaulle sought, there was every indication the president would consider the outcome in the three-day referendum as a mandate to push ahead with his program.

De Gaulle has promised more self-government at once for the North African territory and its Moslem majority and a self-determination referendum when the 6-year-old nationalist rebellion is ended.

The vote in Algeria went against De Gaulle in only one department—Oran, a hotbed of colonialism and rebel nationalism as well.

MIGHT RESIGN
De Gaulle had said he would consider an abstention as a vote against him and hinted he would resign if he did not get a solid endorsement. But Premier Michel Debre in a mid-night TV appearance claimed a great victory for the government and said exultantly, "What a feeling of rallying, unity and strength the nation has shown, rising above those who work to divide."

The Constitutional Council reported this vote in France: Registered voters, 26,847,953; ballots cast, 20,809,029; yes, 15,198,714; no, 4,996,507; void ballots, 613,808.

The yes vote in France thus was 75.25 per cent of the ballots cast, while the abstentions were 22.5 per cent.

The polling was generally quiet in France. But in Algeria rebel attacks or clashes between troops and demonstrators resulted in 14 deaths, bringing the toll for the three days of voting there to 29 dead and scores wounded.

The worst violence was at Tiaret, south of Orleansville, where several hundred Moslems advanced on the European quarter with nationalist flags. A police patrol, cornered, shot its way to freedom, and the mob rioted for several hours. Before order was restored, five persons were dead and 30 wounded.

Three Men Nabbed On Drug Charges

Three Marin men with long arrest records were nabbed by Fairfax police yesterday on charges of possessing dangerous hypnotic drugs.

Jailed in lieu of $2,500 bail each were Fred Kitzmiller, 22, of 200 Red Hill Avenue, San Anselmo; Leroy P. Grundhauser, 22, of 9 Ross Street, San Rafael, and Gordon C. McAndrews, 36, of 16 Footlill Avenue, San Anselmo. The three were to be arraigned this afternoon in Marin Municipal Court.

The arrest came after Officer James Goodwin recognized Grundhauser's car. Knowing Grundhauser's license had been revoked after a previous arrest for a traffic violation, he stopped the car.

Kitzmiller was driving, but he told Officer Goodwin his license also had been revoked.

Police then searched the car and found a quantity of pills

DRIZZLE HIKES TEMPERATURE OVER COUNTY

The rain came, and took away some of Marin's cold. More drizzles tonight and tomorrow morning were forecast by the U.S. Weather Bureau.

The weekend rain didn't amount to much for most of Marin County, although the Chevy Chase district of Larkspur reported .32 of an inch from Saturday noon to 8 a.m. today, and Muir Woods National Monument recorded .3 of an inch. At most spots, the total was only a few one-hundredths of an inch.

But what it did to the temperatures was something else again.

At the county firehouse in Woodacre, where the temperature had dropped below freezing every day this year, yesterday's minimum was 33 degrees and today's, 39.

It was much the same story elsewhere. San Rafael had a minimum this morning of 46, San Anselmo, 45, and Novato, 46—readings that sounded more like the highs of last week.

Navy Games Fan Cuban War Jitters

U. S. Denies Fleet Exercise Has Any Bearing On Crisis

HAVANA (AP)—Regular army units moved into Havana's waterfront today and set up military tents near the memorial to the battleship Maine in feverish preparations to repulse what Prime Minister Fidel Castro calls "an attack from the north."

The semi-official newspaper Revolucion in banner headlines said a "Yankee aircraft carrier" had arrived at Guantanamo Bay, the big U.S. naval base in eastern Cuba.

The newspaper apparently referred to the 45,000-ton supercarrier Franklin D. Roosevelt, depicted as leading a flotilla of vessels which began annual maneuvers in the Caribbean today. A Navy spokesman at Puerto Rico said 150 fleet units would be involved, but fleet headquarters in Norfolk said the exercises broke down into 50 ships off the Carolinas, 22 in amphibious exercises off Puerto Rico and the visit of the carrier and its escort at Guantanamo, the last U.S. foothold in Cuba.

The U.S. Atlantic Fleet's Caribbean maneuvers, which will continue until the end of March, added to the invasion jitters. About 140,000 officers and men will take part. In the fleet, in addition to the carrier, are three guided-missile cruisers and two nuclear submarines.

The Navy stressed that the maneuvers were planned long ago and have no connection with the U.S. break in diplomatic relations with Cuba. But the flotilla is bringing twice as many men and ships to the Caribbean as there were in last year's maneuvers. And it carried enough fire power, missiles and war planes to give strong support to the Guantanamo base if needed.

The Navy spokesman attributed the increased number of ships and men to the fact that

Poacher Suspect Found Guilty On Six Counts

Col. James B. Morehead, 44-year-old Petaluma real estate agent and reserve Air Force officer, was found guilty of poaching on the Silvera Ranch by a jury in Marin County Municipal Court today.

The jury of six men and six women deliberated only 15 minutes before finding the colonel guilty to two counts of trespassing and four counts of violating the Fish and Game Code.

He faces a maximum sentence of three years in jail and/or $3,000 fine. Sentencing will be Jan. 12.

During the second day of the trial today, Morehead read a prepared argument in his defense.

The half hour speech was interrupted several times by self-styled attorney Charles Finn, one of the "fighting Finn twins" and a longtime friend of Morehead's who frequently whispered advice in the colonel's ear. Morehead defended himself.

Morehead implied that he was shielding a 13-year-old boy,

Dixie School Recall Move Abandoned

The fledgling Terra Linda Taxpayers League today called off its plan to institute recall proceedings against Dixie School District trustees for their protest against annexation of Terra Linda to San Rafael.

Instead, the league proposed a study of merger of the Dixie district with the San Rafael Elementary School District. (The territory included in Dixie district is already a part of San Rafael High School District.)

Anton T. Lonich, acting chairman of the newly formed league, announced that a subcommittee, "after a thorough investigation of the unfortunate behavior of the school board, has concluded that recall proceedings against these officials should be held in abeyance temporarily."

Terms of three of the five Dixie trustees—chairman E. E. Lenander, Mrs. Dorothy Brown and Robert S. Winniford—expire May 31. Election will be held April 18. Terms of the other two—Walter J. Doll and Marcus W. Savage—have two years to run.

Lonich said, "The subcommittee was of the opinion that the Dixie School Board trustees had profited from their mistake and hasty action in protesting annexation."

The board's protest was on the basis that Santa Margarita School, which is not within the boundaries of the territory proposed for annexation, would be left without adequate fire protection if the area were annexed and the Terra Linda Community Services District, with its volunteer fire department, thereby went out of existence. The nearest county fire station is at Santa Venetia, but San Rafael soon will open its Joseph Sauer No. 3 Fire Station across Highway 101 from Terra Linda.

Subsequent to the protest, San Rafael city officials assured the school district that the Santa Margarita site could be annexed at the same time as the remainder of Terra Linda—if Terra Linda voters approve the annexation in a special election March 7. Effective date for annexation has been fixed at July 1.

Lonich said the subcommittee recommended "a wait and see attitude toward the trustees," and reported: "The future behavior of the school board regarding annexation should determine the league's course of action. If their attitude is consonant with the wishes of the people of Terra Linda, the taxpayers' league should then be willing to forget and forgive."

The subcommittee also suggested a study of the possible advantages of merging the Dixie district with the San Rafael Elementary School District, Lonich reported.

Kennedy Will Hold Another Talk With Ike

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy and President Eisenhower will hold another conference in Washington Jan. 19, the day before Kennedy's inauguration.

They will meet privately for a half-hour starting at 9 a.m. that day, then will be joined by other top officials of both the outgoing and incoming administrations.

Kennedy and Eisenhower already have held one conference, last Dec. 6. They conferred at length regarding problems of transition from the old administration to the new.

The second conference was arranged at Kennedy's request. This was announced here today by the president-elect's press secretary, Pierry Salinger, while Kennedy was at Harvard University for a meeting of its board of overseers.

Before driving to the university from nearby Boston, Kennedy was urged to assert strong leadership and seek more money to promote world peace through American aid to foreign scholars. (See story on page 2.)

Rescuers Free Man Pinned By Bulldozer

Dennis Collins Holtzinger, 29, of 39 Karl Street, San Anselmo, was pinned underneath a tractor for more than 30 minutes yesterday before being freed by San Rafael firemen and police.

Holtzinger, a working partner in the excavating firm of Holtzinger Brothers, was unloading the bulldozer from a truck-transport when it slipped off its unloading rails and toppled on its side, pinning Holtzinger underneath.

CLEARED GROUND
The machine had been used for clearing ground in a vacant lot across from 25 La Loma Court, where the accident occurred.

Battalion Chief Robert Rogers of the San Rafael Fire Department said Holtzinger was trapped by the roots of a tree against which the machine fell. He was dug out and freed after Rogers cut off his upper clothing with a pocket knife.

Holtzinger was taken to San Rafael General Hospital by United Ambulance and treated for chest bruises.

THANKS RESCUERS

An hour later he walked into the main San Rafael fire station and thanked his rescuers. Four police officers and seven firemen assisted in the rescue while a tow truck from the D and S Garage stood by. Rogers said the fact the accident occurred in soft ground probably saved Holtzinger's life.

"If the ground had been hard he would have been crushed," Rogers said.

Mrs. Smart Directs Ire At 2 More Books

Two more books used at Redwood High School were attacked by Larkspur housewife Anne Smart in specifications on file today with the Tamalpais Union High School District.

Mrs. Smart's complaints against Carson McCullers' "Member of the Wedding" and Nicholas Montsarrat's "The Cruel Sea" will come before the high school district board tonight. The meeting begins at 8 p.m.

The board is scheduled to hear a report from a committee investigating Mrs. Smart's previous complaints against use of J. D. Salinger's "The Catcher in the Rye" and John Steinbeck's "Of Mice and Men" at Redwood High School.

A district spokesman said receipt of her latest protests will be acknowledged tonight, but probably will not be discussed by the board. Mrs. Smart's objections to the McCullers and Montsarrat books were received by Robert Torrey, district director of instruction, and board chairman William Lewis, at their homes Saturday. The objections probably will be referred to a committee for study—the procedure outlined in the district policy on handling book complaints.

Police Battle Holdup Gang, Kill 1, Nab 2

SAN BRUNO (AP)—Thirty-five policemen trapped four suspects of a fancy hat robbery gang last night and killed one in a gun battle.

Police Sgt. James McDonald said the dead man was Robert Herring, 30, address unknown. Kenneth Lawrence Simon, 28, escaped.

McDonald said two other men, Robert William Carter, 33, Portland, Ore., and Hugh Chester Beavers, 46, Seattle, Wash., were captured and charged with armed robbery. Carter was injured in a getaway attempt.

McDonald said the four staged a series of robberies that netted them more than $5,000. They wore homburgs during the holdups, he said.

Police and Federal Bureau of Investigation agents had the gang under surveillance in an apartment here for several days. Last night they trailed three men to a supermarket in nearby South San Francisco, where police said another hold-up was staged.

When the men returned to their hideaway, police ordered them out. Tear gas bombs were thrown. Simon and Herring ran into a garage, where Herring was slain.

Beavers surrendered and Carter was hit by a shotgun blast when he tried to escape.

Hub City Council Will Open Bids On Field House

San Anselmo City Council will open bids tomorrow night for improvement work on the field house and recreational building at Memorial Park.

The council meeting is set for 8 p.m. in the children's room of the city library. The regular council chambers cannot be used as yet because remodeling is going on in the city hall.

A public hearing will be held in a request for duplex zoning by Peter Cervick of 90 Cedar Street.

Other items on the agenda include reports on the city's downtown master plan, new fire station on Butterfield Road, city hall improvements, and completion of improvements in Oak Springs subdivision No. 1 and 2 and Woodland Park subdivision No. 2.

Supervisor J. Walter Blair will attend a meeting of the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club's area study committee Tuesday at 8 p.m. at which time the committee will discuss proposed rerouting of shoreline highway as well as the proposal of rezoning the valley from agricultural to residential, club president Midge Hamburg said today.

The club last night announced a membership drive to start Jan. 13.

Peace Corps Plan Wins Endorsement

BOSTON (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy was urged today to assert strong leadership and seek more money for a program designed to promote world peace through American aid to foreign scholars.

Expansion and more vigorous direction of the existing program of educational and cultural assistance to such students was the second step recommended to Kennedy within 24 hours for improvement of international relations.

The other step would create an experimental peace corps of talented young Americans to serve two years overseas in helping new and underdeveloped countries build "the institutions essential to self confidence and effective nationhood."

During the presidential campaign Kennedy proposed exemption from the military draft for some of the male members of such a corps. This was criticized by his Republican opponent, Vice President Richard M. Nixon, as an invitation to draft dodging.

NO EXEMPTION

A Kennedy-appointed study committee last night recommended establishment of the peace corps, or international youth service, but urged against any exemption from selective service. However, the committee called for draft deferments on the same basis as postponements granted to students taking graduate training in this country.

That study group was headed by Dr. Max Millikan, director of the Center for International Studies at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The other study on aid for foreign scholars, made public today, was made for the president-elect by Prof. James C. Davis of the University of Michigan.

Kennedy had no immediate comment on either study. Neither group placed any price tag on the programs it advocated.

WARM WELCOME

Kennedy flew to Boston last night from New York. He came to his native Massachusetts—and got a warm welcome from a crowd of several hundred at the airport—for a meeting to today of the Harvard overseers, the university's board of directors. Harvard graduate Kennedy is a member of that group.

He also is scheduled to address a joint session of the Massachusetts Legislature late in the day.

Kennedy's program calls for him to fly back to New York tonight for another overnight stay and breakfast tomorrow with Eleanor Roosevelt.

Bill Would Help Welfare Cases

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Assemblyman Vernon Kilpatrick, (D-Lynwood), has introduced two bills to keep public welfare recipients out of the substandard housing and to clean up local jails.

One would prohibit use of state funds to pay rent for those on public welfare if their residence had been condemned or doesn't meet local health and safety standards.

The other would require local health authorities to investigate health and sanitary conditions in their jails at least once a year. Kilpatrick last year headed a committee which reported deplorable conditions in some jails.

Hearings Set On Kennedy Cabinet Picks

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate hearings on President-elect John F. Kennedy's cabinet appointments will start Wednesday. First to come under the Senate's "advise and consent" procedure will be Douglas Dillon, Kennedy's choice for secretary of the Treasury.

It was learned last night that the Senate Finance Committee, headed by Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) has set Wednesday morning for a hearing on Dillon, one of two Republicans selected by Kennedy for the cabinet.

SPEED THINGS UP

The appointments cannot be sent officially to the Senate until after Jan. 20, when Kennedy takes office. But to speed things up, there's no rule against holding the necessary hearings earlier.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.), the new majority leader, over the weekend predicted speedy Senate confirmation of Kennedy's cabinet choices. But he said he expects some of them to be quizzed at length.

Indications are that the president-elect's brother, Robert F. Kennedy, will get the closest look at attorney general-designate. It is the first time a president has named his brother to a cabinet position. Robert Kennedy's age, 35, also has brought some mutterings from senators about his experience for the job as head of the Justice Department.

HOPE FOR ACTION

Two leaders of a move to make it easier to halt a Senate filibuster hope to get action by the middle of the week. They are Sens. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif.) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.).

Kuchel and Humphrey want the rule to be changed so that a filibuster can be stopped by the vote of 51 senators, a bare majority. At present it takes two-thirds of senators present and voting, and Southern senators are against any change.

Kuchel and Humphrey want a test vote by midweek on the right of a member to "move the previous question"—a parliamentary procedure that would cut off debate and force a vote.

Medical Mirror

Blood Test for Heart Attacks

- Pinworms
- Simple Explanation
- Bloody Urine
- Cold Milk

Q. Will you please write about the blood test for heart attacks?

A. You are probably referring to the "transaminase test." Various body tissues contain substances (enzymes) which seep into the blood stream when tissue is injured. The heart muscle, for example, contains transaminase, which is released following certain types of "heart attacks." By testing the blood for transaminase, doctors are able to better diagnose, treat, and follow the patient's progress.

Q. In Medical Mirror you said that pinworms are transferred from person to person. How?

A. Pinworms leave the lower intestinal tract of an infected person and lay eggs on the skin around the anal opening. Other people pick up the eggs from the patient's clothing or objects handled by the patient, or by swallowing airborne eggs or in various other ways.

Q. Is it harmful for a person to "put off" going to the bathroom to urinate?

A. Probably not, for males. For females it might, definitely be harmful. The reason is that the female urethra (tube leading from bladder) is short. Unless it is frequently flushed out by urination, time is allowed for bacteria to get up into the bladder and cause infection. This would be less likely to occur when the urge is respected.

Q. If bloody urine turns normal after a day or so should you see a doctor?

A. Yes. You should have a thorough examination if you ever have blood in the urine. Otherwise, you are risking what could be a symptom of a serious condition requiring prompt treatment.

Q. Does the chilling of milk affect the vitamin and protein content?

A. No.

Our primary function is to provide prescription and related health services of the highest quality.

British Hold 5 On Charge Of Espionage

LONDON (AP)—Three men and two women, including two civilian employees of the British Admiralty, were ordered held today on charges of spying for a foreign power.

British observers called it the biggest espionage case here since the 1950 arrest of atomic spy Klaus Fuchs.

Magistrates in Bow Street Court today denied bail for: Henry Houghton, 53, a pay clerk at the British Navy's Portland yard.

Ethel Gee, 46, a Portland co-worker of Houghton's and well known badminton player.

BOOK SELLER

Peter Kroger, 50, who pleaded unsuccessfully for bail to attend to his book-selling business in London's suburban Ruislip.

Kroger's wife, Helen, 47, Gordon Lonsdale, 37, a company director.

The Krogers and Lonsdale are believed to be Canadians living in Britain, Houghton and Miss Gee both live near the Portland yards.

All five were charged under section one of the Official Secrets Act, which prohibits making sketches or notes useful to an enemy or giving such data to a potential enemy. Maximum penalty is 14 years in prison.

NOT IDENTIFIED

The "enemy" concerned in the case was not identified.

All five defendants were arrested over the weekend by Scotland Yard and special branch hushmen in downtown London and at the Krogers' home in Ruislip.

The Portland yard is a major base for U.S. submarines and the site of important British anti-submarine experiments. The U.S. atomic submarine Nautilus has berthed there.

Sanitary District Plans Accepted

Directors of the Ross Valley Sanitary District have unanimously accepted plans and specifications for the enlargement of the district's facilities in Greenbrae.

The plans by Henry Jenks of Palo Alto call for addition of a bio-filter, clarifier, centrifuge, and extension of control buildings at the plant east of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, reported Manager Ralph C. Noah.

The district will advertise for bids Feb. 8, Noah said, and work is expected to be started by March 1.

The project is expected to cost between $300,000 and $400,000.

The capacity of the plant will be increased by one million gallons.

Big Blimp Arrives

SANTA ANA (AP)—The world's largest blimp, the Navy's 342-foot ZPG-2, was being reoutfitted today for oceanographic research.

The craft arrived at this Southern California coastal city on Saturday to become the first lighter-than-air transcontinental craft to visit the West Coast in five years. The Navy said the purpose of its six-to-eight-week sojourn here was for ocean research—but some unconfirmed reports said the blimp would be used to help develop future anti-submarine warfare tactics along the Pacific coast.

3rd Body Recovered

IDAHO FALLS, Ida. (AP)—Special crews recovered the last body today from the building housing a nuclear reactor that exploded last week. The blast, on the Atomic Energy Commission's eastern Idaho testing station Tuesday night, killed three young servicemen.

The AEC said the recovery effort was complicated by the fact that the body was "lodged in the upper structure of the reactor building"—directly above the top of the damaged reactor.

Vault Theft Suspect

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—One man is in custody on an accessory charge in the $421,961 armored car vault burglary, and police say they recovered $9,980 of the Dec. 27 haul.

Jose Lino Alvarez, 42, was arrested at his home Saturday night. An employee of the Rasdale Armored Car Service at the time of the theft, he was fired that day after allegedly refusing to take a lie detector test or answer questions.

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP)—The pro-Lumumba rebels in Stanleyville today were reported moving troops into Katanga, the rich Congo province ruled independently by secessionist Premier Moise Tshombe.

Sketchy United Nations reports reaching Leopoldville told of Lumumbist troops arriving near the north Katanga town of Manono, about 150 miles from the frontier of Oriental Province, seat of the breakaway regime that is demanding the return to power of ousted Premier Patrice Lumumba.

Jet 'Bombs' Town

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Frightened residents of a Dallas suburb fled their homes yesterday when two large fuel tanks dropped by a Navy jet blasted five-foot craters near two residences.

There were no injuries. A Navy spokesman said the pilot, flying at 30,000 feet, did not release the almost-empty fuel tanks. An investigation has been ordered to determine what caused the malfunctioning of the release mechanism.

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—The two children of newly elected Gov. Terry Sanford enrolled today at Murphree Elementary School, Raleigh's only integrated public school.

It was believed the first time that the children of a southern governor have attended an integrated public school. The Raleigh school board last September admitted one Negro boy to Murphree.

Space Capsule Lost

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The capsule ejected from a payload that rocketed 1,000 miles into space apparently sank in the Atlantic Ocean.

The Air Force presumed this yesterday when a recovery ship failed to find the 90-pound package during a day-long search.

The 392-pound payload and capsule were sent aloft Saturday by a Blue Scout 1 rocket. The capsule parachuted into the ocean 1,200 miles south-east of Cape Canaveral.

State Solon Plans Measures To Protect Auto Buyers

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The legislature will be asked to protect Californians from unscrupulous automobile salesmen.

Assemblyman Thomas Rees (D-Los Angeles) said he will either introduce a series of changes in the present law or offer an entirely new set of regulations on car sales next month.

Rees said he also plans to introduce bills designed to bolster the state's disability insurance fund, now in danger of going broke.

His auto legislation, he said, will be presented to an advisory committee of car dealers, bankers and finance company representatives for comment.

"It's not fair to introduce a lot of bills right away and give the impression that all the dealers are crooks," he said. "I want to be fair."

His proposals include: A uniform sales form, to be filled in and signed by both parties the day the car is purchased.

A measure that would prevent unsuspecting customers from putting up their homes as collateral when they buy an auto.

A bill to regulate what Rees called the unscrupulous advertising of some dealers.

A bill that would ease the financial strain on those who bring suit against dealers they think have defrauded them.

Faces Drug Count

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actor Jackie Coogan, 46, is free on bail today, accused with three others of possessing marijuana.

Sheriff's deputies raided his home in the Malibu Beach colony Saturday. Officers said they found three partly smoked marijuana cigarettes and three ounces of loose marijuana in the house.

The selection was announced as Kennedy was spending the day at Harvard University.

Minow, 34, now is in private law practice in Chicago. He was a administrative assistant to Stevenson when Stevenson was governor of Illinois.

Kennedy already has picked Stevenson to be U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

Minow will succeed Frederick W. Ford as chairman of the FCC. Ford will remain as a member.

Kennedy earlier had named W. Willard Wirtz, another Stevenson law partner, as undersecretary of labor.

Hotel Fire Inquest Set; Police Release Suspect

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A coroner's inquest into the deaths of 20 persons in the Thomas Hotel fire will be held in about two weeks, it was announced yesterday.

A member of Coroner Henry Turkel's staff said the hearing will determine if criminal negligence was involved in the blaze that swept through the low rate downtown hotel Friday.

Raymond T. Gorman, 62, in whose room authorities believe the fires started, was held briefly as a manslaughter suspect but released Saturday afternoon.

The district attorney's office reported it had no evidence to back fire investigators' contention that a cigarette in Gorman's mattress started the whole thing.

This finding has no bearing on the coroner's responsibility to fix the cause of deaths, the aide said.

Eight of the bodies are still unidentified and coroner's deputies say it is doubtful of seven of them ever will be identified. The eighth possibly could be if relatives are found, deputies said.

More than 260 cities and towns in Alaska have commercial airline service.

Corte Madera may become the site for a Marin consumers cooperative store.

The town planning commission will hear an application tonight from Consumers Cooperative of Berkeley, Inc., for rezoning to local shopping district the area bounded by Tamalpais Drive, old county road, Meadowsweet and the Billings-Hutchinson office building. The area is now zoned as a professional and administrative office district.

Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow said representatives of the cooperative indicated they plan a Marin cooperative on the site.

Also on the agenda for the meeting, which begins at 7:30 p.m., are a public hearing at 8 p.m. on a request to amend the sign ordinance; review of two ordinances proposed by the town attorney, and application from the Edgewater Inn for approval of a sign design.

The Mill Valley Planning Commission will hold a public hearing at its meeting tomorrow at 8 p.m. on a proposal to rezone three lots between the city hall and Gardner Street from multiple residential to professional administrative and commercial shopping.

Mill Valley Purity Will Close For Remodeling

Purity Stores, Inc., will close its Mill Valley store at 639 East Blithedale Avenue from next Saturday night to Jan. 25 for a quarter-million-dollar remodeling project.

Urban Blake, manager of the Mill Valley outlet for the 100-unit California market chain, today announced dates for the shutdown.

The remodeling already has been started with the store doing business.

The remodeling will include leveling the floor, which has sunk because of insecure footings. Huge pilings will be driven just inside the wall line. On these will be placed pre-stressed concrete T-beams, 90 feet long, to support a new floor.

Interior remodeling, said Blake, will include also: installation of new fixtures.

New Librarian Appointed In Sausalito

Mrs. Josephine Ripley of San Rafael has been appointed Sausalito's new city librarian, it was announced today by Mrs. James Wyatt, chairman of the Sausalito Library Board.

She replaces Mabel Wosser, who retired Nov. 1 after 23 years.

Mrs. Ripley, who lives at 178 Reservoir Road, has been in library work since 1946. She is assistant reference librarian at the Sixth Army Reference Library, Presidio of San Francisco. She will start work in Sausalito Jan. 23 at a salary of $450 per month.

The librarian's husband is owner and operator of Ripley's Garage in Novato.

A native of Norman, Okla., Mrs. Ripley received her degree in library science from Oklahoma University. She then went with the armed forces as a librarian to Bremerhaven and Garmisch, Germany.

From 1948 to 1951 she was post librarian at the San Francisco Presidio; from 1951 to 1957 she was Western Air Defense Force librarian at Hamilton Air Force Base. She has been in her present job since 1957.

Mrs. Ripley, president of the Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae Club of Marin County, has lived in San Rafael since 1954.

Mrs. Wyatt said much of Mrs. Ripley's previous work was serving adults and juveniles as at any public library. She said, "The board is pleased to obtain someone with Mrs. Ripley's background."

Dixon-Yates Suit Nullified By Top Court

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court today nullified a $1,867,545 damage suit award against the government in the Dixon-Yates case on grounds the contract was "tainted" by a federal adviser's conflict of interest role.

By a 6 to 3 decision, the court held the contract was invalidated legally because of the activities of New York investment broker Adolphe H. Wenzell, who served as a consultant when the Dixon-Yates combine won the $107-million-dollar power plant award in 1954.

President Eisenhower canceled the contract to provide private power for the Atomic Energy Commission after a series of Senate hearings at which Democrats raised conflict-of-interest charges against Wenzell.

The Dixon-Yates combine sued the government for damages and was awarded $1,867,545 by a claims court. This was thrown out today by the high court.

In other action today, the Supreme Court:

1. Ruled that Frankie Carbo, known as the underworld ruler of professional boxing, must stand trial in Los Angeles on charges of extortion and conspiracy. By a 7 to 2 vote, the court upheld a writ by a Los Angeles court ordering Carbo removed from a New York City prison to stand trial in a U.S. district court on Feb. 14.

2. Decided that consecutive sentences may be imposed both for conspiracy and a specific individual offense under the federal Hobbs labor anti-racketeering law. 3. Agreed to decide whether federal courts may bar peaceful picketing by a union in violation of a no-strike agreement. Arguments in the Wichita, Kan., trucking company dispute will be heard later this year.

Black Point Gas Service Pends Signups

Black Point will get natural gas service if at least 134 customers sign up by June 15, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. announced today.

The company is prepared to spend $151,800 to extend natural gas lines to the Black Point area—residents of which have agitated for such service unsuccessfully for years—announced Elias S. Day, PG&E North Bay Division manager.

LETTERS MAILED

Letters have been mailed residents explaining the service and inviting signups, Day said.

Potential customers are being asked to put up a $50 deposit and agree to take service for at least three years. The deposit will be refunded to those who meet their commitments when the gas line is in service, the company said—or it will be returned if there are insufficient signups.

The company plans to extend a gas main 7.6 miles from Novato along Atherton Avenue to Black Point.

Early in 1958, the Black Point-Indian Valley-Downtown Property Owners Assn. presented a petition for natural gas service to Black Point and sought to block a gas rate increase for PG&E until such service was provided.

REFUSED LINE

PG&E conducted a survey and reported the company would lose at least $7,000 a year on natural gas service to Black Point. It therefore refused to install the line.

Early the following year, 139 residents of the area petitioned to form an assessment district to pay part of the cost of extending natural gas lines to Black Point if the gas company would pay the remainder. The assessment district's share was figured at $35,534.

Nothing came of this effort, but PG&E promised to extend natural gas service to Black Point as soon as it appeared economically feasible. The company's announcement today indicated its officials feel that time may have arrived.

Subdivision Approved On West Marin Coast

Attorney Benjamin P. Bonelli won 4-2 approval of a tentative map of a 25-acre Drakes Beach Estates subdivision on Limantour Spit on the West Marin coast from the Marin County Planning Commission today against an adverse staff report and an argument for "open spaces" from a Belvedere neighbor on the commission.

Basic philosophy of the future development of Marin's undeveloped coastal regions was involved, as was shown by attitude of Chairman William Upton in joining Commissioner Felix M. Warburg in voting against approval of what Upton termed a "too urban" style of planning.

But Bonelli contended that "you have an ordinance that's completely impossible to work with" in such areas as West Marin.

Bonelli countered planning staff arguments that access to the remote spit would be difficult by saying that in earlier Drake's Beach subdivision he had been able to persuade the board of supervisors that he was doing his part by developing several miles of road through other people's land.

Bonelli lives at 56 Peninsula Road, Belvedere. Commissioner Warburg lives at 61 Peninsula Road.

"Water is not a substitute for all types of open space, as we know from our Belvedere experience," said Warburg. "We have the Belvedere Lagoon but our children have to play on the street. People went to our area for sailing but found that didn't fill all the needs."

"Now in West Marin with lots of space you are making an urban style development. I feel we are coming to a situation of smaller lots, available to more people. But I feel there should be open space to compensate."

Bonelli contended the subdivision will be recreational rather than for year-round residence, but Dr. Upton said the trend is to start with one and progress toward the other.

"If you just want a park for your children to play, I'll agree to that," Bonelli went on, "but I would never agree to leave open space on the water where it could later be condemned for a public park, and thus hurt our residential values." He said property owners will automatically receive shares in a country club for which four acres have been set aside. Later he voluntarily agreed to set aside playground space of about an acre, considered the size needed for a baseball diamond.

Commissioner Niels Schultz Jr., who finally moved approval of the map, said that "redevelopment is a thing we must expect in this area as matters progress" and Upton quipped: "Maybe a big storm will develop the whole thing."

Businessman Named To Bank's Board

Appointment of Albert F. Schmitz, San Rafael businessman, to the advisory board for Bank of America's San Rafael branch was announced today by manager Leroy Rudolph.

Schmitz, manager of the L. R. Moore stationery store and a partner in North Bay Securities Co., joins a panel of nine local residents headed by Judge Jordan L. Martinelli who advise branch officers on matters of economic and community interest. It is one of a number of branch advisory boards throughout California.

"We are pleased to have Mr. Schmitz on our board," Rudolph said. "His advice and counsel, based on his long and wide knowledge of the area should prove most beneficial."

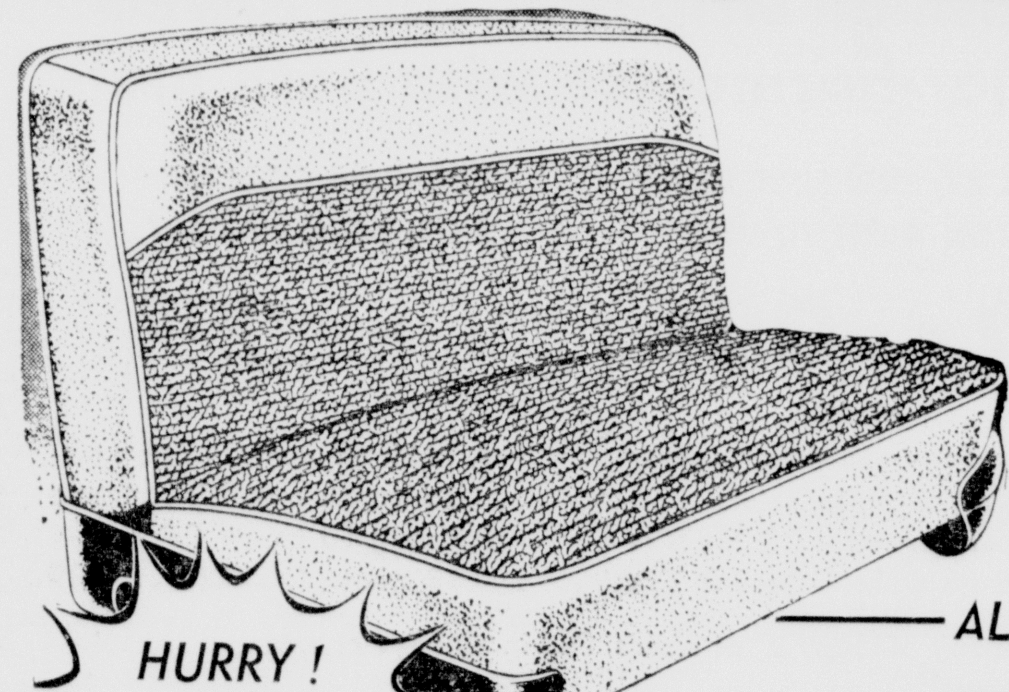

Schmitz is a member of the Business and Professional Men's Club, San Rafael Chamber of Commerce and Elks Lodge. He lives at 271 Fairhills Drive.

Other members of the board are Dr. W. Scott Pollard, vice chairman; M. V. Cardozo, Henry H. Dalton, Richard Zoellner, Roderick P. Martinelli, Charles J. Murray and R. P. A. Everard.

RESCUED FROM SHAFT — Larry Dacek, 15, of Reno, clings to rope as he is pulled from abandoned mine shaft near Virginia City Saturday night. He wears helmet to protect his

Solen Would Revise Drug Violation Law

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state legislature was asked today to revise court procedures for handling narcotics violators.

Assemblyman Charles E. Chapel (R-Los Angeles) said he planned to introduce a bill to overturn judicial decisions requiring warrants for seizure of dope and identification of paid police informants in narcotics arrests.

"Unless this bill is enacted," Chapel said, "a high percentage of narcotic violators will go free because they can't be convicted under the present interpretations of the law."

Two superior court decisions are involved. The first said evidence obtained without a warrant is not admissible in court. The second said that police witnesses must disclose the source of their information.

Chapel's bill says flatly: "No evidence shall be excluded because of the manner in which it was obtained."

Of the people who live in northern Minnesota's mining communities, only one man in seven actually works in the mines.

Reno Youth Rescued From Old Mine Tunnel

VIRGINIA CITY, Nev. (AP) — Larry Dacek, 15, of Reno, was recovering at home today from the effects of a close brush with death.

He was rescued Saturday night from a shaft over the Suto tunnel in Virginia City's Comstock Lode country.

Larry expressed his gratitude from his hospital bed in Reno. "All those guys did a wonderful job," he said. "I don't know how to tell them thanks." Larry is suffering from a possible fracture in his back.

"But I feel a lot better than I did down that hole," he said.

The youth spent nearly 11 hours crouched 50 feet below the surface in the narrow, crumbling mine shaft. Rescuers said the vertical air shaft originally connected with the Suto tunnel some 1,400 feet below the surface, but a recent cave-in sealed it at 50 feet.

Walt German, 42, an off-duty Carson City policeman and ex-rigger, went down a rope to rescue the boy.

Workers said the rubble which plugged the hole could have dropped at any moment. The only support was aging timbers.

German said the rescue "was just part of my duty as I saw it."

Larry and two other boys had been trying to find a way into the Suto tunnel. The friends, Fred Veldero, 16, and Howard Carlson, 17, lowered Larry into the shaft by a rope which broke when they tried to pull him out again.

Delay Ordered In Integration At Georgia U.

ATLANTA (AP) — A federal judge who ordered two Negroes admitted to the all-white University of Georgia granted a stay today to permit an appeal to a higher court.

The action by Judge W. A. Bootle came as Miss Charlayne A. Hunter, 18, and Hamilton E. Holmes, 19, were at the university in Athens making final arrangements to enter the 175-year-old institution.

The stay order will delay their enrollment with 7,400 white students until the opening of the spring quarter late in March.

GIVES CHANCE

It gives the segregation-minded Georgia Legislature, which opened a 40-day session today, a chance to strike out provisions of laws banning the use of state funds in operation of an integrated college.

The more than 250 legislators whooped and hollered for several minutes when words of Bootle's stay action reached the legislative halls.

At Athens, 60 miles east of Atlanta, Miss Hunter and Holmes were in the process of being enrolled when Bootle's delay order came.

The quick action by Bootle brought a prompt announcement from Mrs. Constance Baker Motley of New York, counsel for the National Advancement of Colored People, that his action will be appealed to the Fifth U. S. Court of Appeals at New Orleans.

STATE'S APPEAL

The state's appeal to this same appellate court will contest Bootle's desegregation decree. Bootle warned Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook that there should be no delay in the appeal and ordered the university to post a $5,000 good faith bond.

Bootle's decision today came less than two hours before Gov. Ernest Vandiver prepared to address the legislature and try to point a way out of the crisis and conflict in state and federal laws.

A cross was burned on the edge of the university campus early today in the presence of about 200 chanting, yelling students.

The Athens fire department extinguished the cross. Police were called but no arrests were reported.

$685 In Jewelry, Clothing Stolen

About $685 worth of jewelry and clothing was stolen from a home in Homestead Valley while the owners were away on vacation, it was reported today.

Elmer Hall Julien, 53, of 111 LaVerne Avenue, said he and his wife were away from Dec. 21 until New Year's Day. A checkup last week revealed that a number of rings, earrings, brooches, necklaces and a sports coat were missing, he told sheriff's deputies.

The home apparently had been entered through an unlocked window in a utility room, officers said.

U.S. Starts Observance Of Civil War Centennial

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A nation once torn asunder by the Civil War officially opened the 100th anniversary observance of that tragic era yesterday with pageantry and prayer.

One theme was dominant in the ceremonies: The nation had been able to reunite itself after the war.

Both North and South paid tribute to the commanding generals of the rival armies that battled for four long years in the country's costliest conflict until World War II.

Troops in full dress uniform stood under chilly skies in New York City while wreaths were laid in honor of the Northern commander, Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, at his tomb on the bank of the Hudson River.

The general's grandson, Maj. Gen. Ulysses S. Grant III, chairman of the National Civil War Centennial Commission, placed the first of four wreaths in front of the tomb.

"The most wonderful part of Civil War," he said, "was that the members of the two armies were afterward able to work together to make this great nation what it is today."

Gen. Robert E. Lee's efforts to heal the wounds of war were praised at ceremonies at the Confederate leader's tomb in Lexington, Va.

Francis P. Gaines, former Washington and Lee University president, said that "the dignity of General Lee, his tireless energy in behalf of tomorrow, and his faith in the future of this reunited country were the greatest stabilizing elements in the pathetic postwar years."

The Civil War actually started April 12, 1861, when Confederate troops shelled Fort Sumter in the harbor of Charleston, S.C.

But President Eisenhower chose the so-called Star of the West incident to kick off the celebration. The Star of the West was a Union supply ship en route to Fort Sumter when rebel forces in the harbor fired on it, on Jan. 8, 1861, forcing it to turn around and head home.

Cadets of The Citadel re-enacted the firing in Charleston today, using five 24-pound cannons similar to those used a century ago. The USS Orleans Parish, a Navy minercraft support ship, was fitted out with mast, sails and paddlewheels for the re-enactment.

Bag Of Nuts Leads To Suspect's Arrest

A bag of pistachio nuts led to the arrest of Charles B. Roth, 29-year-old watchman at the Southern Marin Recreation Center, yesterday on a charge of looting Varney's Marine Hardware at 9 Main Street, Tiburon.

Nut shells were found scattered about the shop by deputies investigating the theft; of a flashlight and sleeping bag belonging to John Brodzinski, watchman at the shop.

Checking nearby bars to see who had bought pistachio nuts on Saturday night, sheriff's deputies were given a description of Roth. Deputy William N. McKillop went to the recreation center and arrested Roth at 9 p.m. yesterday.

He said Roth admitted entering Varney's Hardware through an unlocked door about 10 p.m. Saturday on his way home from a bar.

A flashlight and sleeping bag found at the recreation center were identified as the stolen goods.

Roth was held in lieu of $787.50 bail to be arraigned this afternoon in Marin Municipal Court.

guided missile vessels are taking part for the first time. The U.S. warships, from every major base on the Atlantic Coast, will be joined by Canadian, British and Dutch units. U.S. Marines will practice amphibious landings on Vieques Island, 20 miles east of Puerto Rico.

The U.S. fleet movements, labeled "provocative" by the Havana newspaper El Mundo, appeared to offer an excuse for the Castro regime to whip up the invasion hysteria now lagging after 10 days of warnings. The Navy show of strength was the only "enemy invasion" that Castro could point to despite his complaint to the U.N. Security Council that American forces were going to attack him.

Invasion preparations have gone to the extreme of mining the network of major highways leading out of the capital.

He also announced plans to ask a legislative study of the antibiotic. He said there is strong evidence the antibiotic causes an often fatal ailment.

Youth Caught After Wild Road Chase

John J. Angeli, 18, led San Anselmo police on an 85-mile-per-hour chase on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard early yesterday but wound up in jail on charges of speeding, attempting to evade arrest and failure to heed red light and siren. His bail was set at $100.

Angeli, of 132 Domingo Avenue, Fairfax, was spotted by Sgt. John E. Orr speeding in the 700 block of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard. When Orr began to give chase, he said, Angeli began to increase his speed.

As the chase continued, Fairfax police were notified.

With Orr's patrol car flashing red lights and using the siren behind the speeding auto, Angeli was approached by a Fairfax police car, also with flashing red lights and siren, but he continued increasing his speed to 85 miles per hour, Orr reported.

Finally, Angeli's auto went into a skid and stopped just inside the city limits of Fairfax. Angeli is employed by a San Francisco jewelry firm.

Bill Allowing Deduction Of U.S. Tax Set

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Assemblyman said today he will ask his fellow Democrats to consider a program of tax cuts to boost the state's economy.

Assemblyman William Munnell, (D-Montebello) said his proposals were "not necessarily" opposed to those of Gov. Edmund G. Brown, who has declared California can afford only one tax cut this year—repeal of the sales tax on prescription drugs.

"The governor wants a balanced budget. So do I, if possible," Munnell said.

He said a tax cut will pump more money into the economy and raise sales tax collections, the state's main source of revenue.

Brown, in calling for the repeal of the drug tax, said "the state simply cannot afford loss of any other revenue at this time."

Munnell said he will introduce a bill to allow Californians to deduct their federal income taxes from state returns.

The assemblyman said he had no idea of what it would cost the state.

"If such a measure were to pass it would pump additional money into the economy at a time when it is needed most," he said.

He said he would present his proposals to a meeting of Democratic assemblymen tomorrow. He has not discussed them with Brown, he said.

Oliver was found unconscious on an extension of Lagunitas Road near Phoenix Lake on Aug. 14 with a satchel nearby containing 115 grams of marijuana, four growing peyote plants, 60 stimulant pills and 30 barbiturate pills.

Spinal Defects Termed Overlooked Illness Cause

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Have you tried everything for your aches and pains and still found no cure? The reason you continue to suffer may be an overlooked cause of illness.

Recently, for example, German medical men reported spinal defects in 86 of 100 ulcer patients. These doctors also reported remarkable recoveries of health when the spinal defects were corrected.

Chiropractors, for many years, have been calling attention to spinal defects in persons with ulcers, heart trouble, arthritis and many other ailments.

What is the relationship between the spine and health? All cells, organs and muscles are controlled by the nervous system. The spine protects the nerves as they flow from the body to various parts of the body.

A spine that is out of line often pinches vital nerves as they branch out through spinal openings.

Chiropractors are specialists in correcting spinal defects and should be consulted at least once a year.

Dr. R. W. Pearce, D.C. practices the Palmer Method. His office is at 1628 Fifth Ave., San Rafael, GL 3-6201.

Teen Dance Keeps Novato Police Busy

A teen-age dance at the Novato Community Club Saturday night kept city police "tied up for a good part of the four-hour dance," one officer reported.

The dance was sponsored by Rev. Mark H. Scott of San Anselmo, and his son, Mark S. Scott, whom the senior Scott said was head of the "teen-age dance club."

Rev. Scott said he was a minister of the Christian Church. He said all members of the club were from Marin but that the dance Saturday was open to all.

"There wasn't any trouble. No punches were thrown in the building or on the dance floor," Rev. Scott said today. "What happened outside and after the dance we have no control over." Rev. Scott said he and six other adults chaperoned the dance.

Police reports show that an 18-year-old Petaluma girl was found intoxicated at the dance. A police matron said the girl climbed out of a window in the club's restroom where she had gone on becoming sick. She was caught by police and turned over to her parents.

Police reports say one fight was stopped after a youth flipped a cigarette into the face of another, another fight erupted between two youths over a girl friend, and two youths are suspected of intentionally breaking a restroom window. Police reports contain a list of reprimanded youths.

Officer Wayne W. Knutilla, who was hired on his own time to patrol the dance, called on other officers several times during the evening to help quell the outbreaks.

"It seemed as if the juveniles were testing the new police department and they certainly kept it tied up for a good part of the four-hour dance," reported Officer Knutilla.

Water District Board Approves Aqueduct Plans

Plans and specifications for the aqueduct to be constructed by Sonoma County from Santa Rosa to Petaluma in the Russian River water project were approved last night by the directors of the North Marin Water District.

The approval hinged on two minor reservations concerning a lateral line and turn-outs that were not included in the contract, according to District Manager Jerome B. Gilbert.

The aqueduct will be built with Sonoma County bonds, Gilbert said, but water revenues from both Marin and Sonoma will be used to pay off those bonds.

Bids for the Marin section of the aqueduct will be opened Feb. 7. Work is expected to be started on the two-county project in either late April or early May, Gilbert estimated.

Plans and specifications for the section of the pipe running from Petaluma to Novato will be presented before the North Marin Water District Jan. 17, Gilbert announced.

It was the 10th book of poems by the Stanford English professor to be published since his first, "The Immobile Wind," was published in 1921.

The Bollingen Prize was established in 1948. The first winner was Ezra Pound.

Pre-Elizabethan Plays Please Marin Audience

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Shakespearean drama lovers who attended the pre-Elizabethan program at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley yesterday afternoon were reminded that far from being "highbrow," theater of the period was as much "of the people, by the people and for the people" as American democracy.

Under the auspices of the Homestead Valley Improvement Club, 10 members of the American Shakespeare Festival Theater of Stratford, Conn., recreated the spirit of three of the miracle and folk plays Shakespeare probably saw as a youth.

They were "The Second Shepherd's Play," "The Coventry Miracle Play" and "St. George and the Dragon."

The actors performed on the small stage that was almost the exact size of the old pageant wagons the trade guilds used for their shows. Without scenery and with few props, they relied on the audience to imagine change of scenes.

As master of ceremonies, director Will Geer did a good job of outlining historical background of the pieces. He was at his best in his between-play monologues impersonating American writers he described as owing much to the great bard.

Simple plots were given versatile performances—lusty and vigorous when they featured timeless folk-fun objects such as the shrewish wife or wiley thief, or quietly reverent when they dealt with the shepherds' visit to Mary and the Christ Child.

Top honors for acting went to Christopher Lloyd as a rip-snorting dragon in the wonderfully burlesqued fight between St. George and the dragon.

Costumes adequate to suggest characters were improvised from wardrobes used in productions of the Tamalpais Valley Players and Sausalito Little Theater. Walls were decorated with banners made by Marin Country Day School pupils.

As a climax to what he called a "seminar in how Shakespeare happened to be that way," Geer turned over copies of the script of a 200-year-old mummer's play, "Robin Hood and the Tanner," to Robert Adler, director of the recently organized Homestead Players and Tamalpais Valley Players, for an impromptu presentation.

They rehearsed during a 15-minute intermission while the audience had refreshments, and despite difficulties with trying to act while reading lines, several succeeded in creating amusing characterizations. Among those participating were Steve Haggerty, John Crain, Cliff Badger, Joe Allen, Morrie Batz, Beverly Brian, Dick Angel, Alan Burdick and Bob Salvio.

The program as a whole was too long. Either one of the plays could have been eliminated or the impromptu version should not have been attempted.

But there was no doubt everyone had fun. Again the club, as at the recent "Back to Mozart" concert it sponsored, had a sold-out house with many turned away.

Mill Valleyan Named

Dr. John W. Hoag, Mill Valley optometrist and president-elect of the San Francisco and Marin Counties Optometric Society, has accepted appointment on the student relations panel of the University of California's School of Optometry, as Marin representative.

Shakespearean Actor To Give One-Man Show

Will Geer, director of the workshop of the Shakespearean Festival Theater of Stratford, Conn., will appear in a one-man show Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in Brown's Hall, Mill Valley.

Members of the workshop presented a pre-Elizabethan program there yesterday, and according to Robert Adler, director of the sponsoring Homestead Valley Improvement Club's Players, Geer has consented to do the extra show especially for those who were turned away on account of the sold-out house.

Geer says he will plan the show with children and the young in heart in mind. Tickets will be sold at the box office starting at 9:30 a.m. Proceeds will go to the Homestead Valley Improvement Club and the Shakespearean Festival Theater's scholarship fund.

As a warmup preceding the show, "The Great Alberti," one of the Homestead Players who is also a professional magician, will do a 15-minute show.

GOVERNOR GETS A BIG 'MOO'

Guernsey cow lets go with a big "moo" as Pennsylvania Gov. David L. Lawrence holds its bridle after milking bossy, for the benefit of photographers, at the Pennsylvania Farm Show in Harrisburg. Last year the governor fell off a milking stool while trying to milk a cow by hand; this year he played it safe, using a folding chair and an electric milking machine. In background, convulsed at the cow's reaction, is Carol Ann Robinson, the show's "Miss Milkmaid." (AP Wirephoto)

Bad Check Suspect Arraigned In Court

Harold L. Burr, 28, of 139 Ross Street, San Rafael, one of three men arrested by San Anselmo police last week on charges of passing bad checks, was to be arraigned at 1:30 p.m. today in Marin County Municipal Court.

Burr appeared before Judge Joseph G. Wilson on Friday with Richard E. Brooks, 32, of 235 Scenic Avenue, San Anselmo, and Frank E. Bartholomew, 27, of Stuyvesant Drive, Sleepy Hollow. All were arrested Thursday by Sam H. Serio, assistant San Anselmo police chief.

Burr, a window washer accused of passing worthless checks at the Safeway Store and Leone's Variety Center in San Anselmo, was released on his own recognizance by Judge Wilson.

The public defender was appointed to defend Burr on the felony charge.

Arraigned on misdemeanor charges were Brooks, a mechanic, who is accused of passing fictitious checks at the San Anselmo Safeway Store and in San Francisco and Sonoma, and Bartholomew, an unemployed car salesman, for allegedly passing bad checks at the McDougal and Glaser Mobil Service Station in San Anselmo.

Bartholomew was released on $525 bail to appear for plea on Feb. 10 and Brooks on $1,050 bail to make his plea Friday at 1:30 p.m.

Knife Threat Suspect Held

A 38-year-old Santa Venetia man was arrested Saturday in San Rafael after reportedly threatening a 15-year-old boy with a switchblade knife.

Edmund Castillo Obiedo, 202 Vendola Drive was caught after being identified by John Matthew Slivka, 15, of 118 Baltimore Avenue, Larkspur. The youth had hailed a police patrol unit from Zip's Drive-In at Third and A Streets. He had fled to the drive-in for safety after being accosted by Obiedo, he told police.

A search of Obiedo's car turned up a switchblade knife. He was arrested and charged with possession of a switchblade knife, threatening with a deadly weapon and assault.

He was booked at the county jail and released on $263 bail to be arraigned at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow in Marin County Municipal Court.

GOVERNOR ASSESSES SELF

Brown Proud Of Job, But 'I'll Be Better'

By MORRIE LANDSBERG
SACRAMENTO (P)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown says "I think I'll be a better governor in the next two years."

Brown, at the midway point of his four-year term, said he's proud of what his Democratic administration has accomplished and he has great plans for the future.

He acknowledged in an interview, however, that he has made some mistakes.

"I've learned a lot," he said. Of the most controversial episode—the Caryl Chessman case—Brown said frankly he "underestimated the wrath of the people" but that:

"Looking back, I'd have done exactly the same thing."

Would he seek re-election in 1962?

"I'm not sure—not by a long shot," he replied.

Other things that he said, though, left the unmistakable impression that the 55-year-old chief executive has no plans to step aside.

"I've never worked so hard in my life," he said, "but I've never enjoyed a job so much."

In discussing the Chessman case, the governor referred to the violent reaction to his decision to reprieve Chessman for 60 days and toss the death penalty question to the 1960 legislature in the meantime. When the legislature refused to abolish capital punishment, Brown let Chessman die. He contended then, and still does, that he was powerless to act.

The law requires majority approval of the State Supreme Court for any clemency for a two-time loser like Chessman.

"The court had turned him down," Brown said. "There was only one body that could have given him life and that was the legislature."

"I had wanted to give the man who fought so hard for his life every chance to save his life."

If he had it to do all over again, the governor said he would have taken a somewhat different approach on two political developments which also have been widely criticized.

1. He would have formed "a more loyal delegation" than the group nominally pledged to him at the Democratic National Convention. Brown never had control of the 81 votes and failed to deliver a majority to his choice, Sen. John F. Kennedy.

The governor, who heard all avowed candidates out of the California presidential primary, said it might have been better if he had let them in and let the voters decide.

2. "I think I would have made it clear that I had no intention at any time of running for president or vice president. I didn't realize some of my statements permitted people to think I had aspirations."

Milk Truck Crash Injures Driver

A San Anselmo milk truck driver was slightly injured Saturday when he lost control of his truck on a Fairfax hill and crashed into another truck.

Arnold Glen Warbelow, 57, a driver for Golden State Co., told the Highway Patrol he thought his left front brake grabbed, causing him to lose control of the truck.

The vehicle overturned after hitting a truck being parked at 408 Oak Manor Drive by William Woodrow Wilson, 43. Wilson, a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. line foreman, lay on the seat of his truck to avoid injury when he saw the other truck was going to hit him.

Warbelow was treated at Marin General Hospital for a cut face and a bruised hip.

Way Of Getting Water Discussed

Bolinas Public Utility District board members discussed getting more water for their area at Friday's regular meeting at the Country Store.

However, no decisions were reached, board member L. G. Pepper reported. The next regular meeting is set for 7:30 p.m. Feb. 3. Sherman R. Smith is chairman of the board.

Keane, Navy veteran and a pioneer of the Boy Scouts' Explorer program, will be principal speaker at a dinner of the Marin Council of Boy Scouts at Hamilton Air Force Base Officers Club on the evening of Jan. 19. Marin Man Elected To Post With ACLU

Donald Vial of 679 Bamboo Terrace, San Rafael, has been elected to a vacancy on the board of directors of the American Civil Liberties Union of Northern California, his term expiring next Oct. 31.

Vial, 36, was born in Stockton, graduated from the University of California and holds an M.A. degree in economics. After two years of teaching he became a research economist for the California State Federation of Labor where he is now assistant to the secretary-treasurer.

Conference On Aging Hears Ike, Faces Fight

WASHINGTON (P)—President Eisenhower urged delegates to the White House conference on aging today to develop every opinion "no matter how bitterly opposed" in an effort to provide goals for the country.

In a brief welcoming address to the conference of 2,500 delegates in Constitution Hall, the president said he hoped the four-day deliberations would bring out material on problems of the aging that Congress can use in its deliberations.

He thus recognized a controversy that was raging even before the conference opened—how to finance medical care for the aged.

The chief executive, 70, and about to retire from the White House job, laughingly said that he did not want "to get too definite about this aged business."

He said he was not going to express his own views, because they already are well-known, "and besides I'm not a delegate."

"I applaud the conference," the president said, and added he felt Congress did a good thing in asking him to call it.

Apparently top government officials were attempting to ease controversy over charges—made and denied—that the conference has been stacked by the American Medical Assn., insurance and business groups against a program of medical care for the aged tied to the social security program.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming, in his opening remarks, urged the delegates to act, regardless of the controversial character of certain programs, in such a way that this disagreement "will not result in the nation finding itself on dead center."

Those who have the responsibility for decisions, he said, are urged to make a decision so that the nation can achieve agreed upon goals and provide senior citizens with "an inspiring and meaningful opportunity for living."

Tiburon Chamber To Name Officers

The Tiburon Chamber of Commerce will install officers at its noon luncheon meeting tomorrow at the Anchor Cafe on Tiburon's Main Street.

William S. Johnstone will be the new president; Mrs. Elva T. Paske, vice president; Howard E. Langford, treasurer, and Fred C. Hannahs, secretary. David Allen, George J. Bitter and outgoing president Robert A. Sterling will be seated as directors for two-year terms.

Ernest C. Chamberlain, well-known Tiburon yachtsman and sailor, will illustrate with slides a description of his yachting activities in Marin County and the South Seas.

MAJOR 'REFORM' BILL

Measure On Teacher Training Introduced

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The first of the major educational "reform" bills, a proposal to strengthen the training of new teachers in academic subjects, was introduced in the legislature today.

Sen. Hugo Fisher (D-San Diego) said the bill was the "first concrete step in years to assure that the youth of California are educated by people who are themselves educated."

Fisher's measure incorporates a new teaching credential plan worked out by the State Department of Education and the State Board of Education. The proposal was endorsed by Gov. Edmond G. Brown in his message to the legislature last week.

The plan has these provisions:

1. It would require prospective elementary school teachers to complete five years of college, instead of four, and to major in an academic subject.
2. It would seek to limit instructors from teaching subjects in which they have not majored at college.
3. It reduces the number of credentials from 40 to five.

Fisher said he considered the proposal "the master plan for lower education." He said it "should do for lower education what the master plan did for higher education."

The senator was one of the main legislative architects of the master plan passed by the 1960 legislature to promote orderly growth for the University of California and the state colleges.

The teaching credential proposal, with its aim to reduce the number of methods courses offered new teachers, has already had one incidental effect, according to State Department of Education officials.

They say word has circulated in several education departments in the state colleges that replacements for retiring professors of education need not be found immediately.

However, the credential proposal faces opposition in the legislature.

A delegation of teachers of physical education, business, home economics, art and industrial arts urged the board of education Friday to strike the word "academic" from the college subject requirement for new teachers.

The instructors said the board's definition of "academic" was narrow and would exclude them.

Appliance Repair Industry Forms Trade Association For Marin

Sometimes the little dials of progress are the ones to watch. They don't make history but do register the pulse of growth. Among them is the trade association. It follows a respectable distance behind the trade itself—not like a shadow but more like a conscience, doggedly and admonishingly.

Newest one to appear in Marin County is that of the appliance repair industry.

The Appliance Profession Assn., a statewide organization of firms in that field, has named Stuart Page Associates in San Rafael to guide its management and growth in Marin. It was formed in 1954 and its purpose is to raise the standards of appliance repair service, stop upscrapulous service methods and help the public in getting a fair shake for its money.

Harry Johnson of J and J Appliance Service, San Rafael, is quoted as saying there is a definite need for such an organization in Marin. He says the rapidly growing industry here requires group control to prevent fly-by-night operators from bilking the public.

It's always good to see any industry take steps to do its own housecleaning.

TWO LOCAL MEMBERS of the San Francisco Bay Area Chapter of the American Institute of Building Design are scheduled to attend the association's mid-year seminar at Palm Springs Saturday, according to Ervin H. Hille of San Rafael, chapter president.

Marin County participants will be Edward Hageman Jr. of San Rafael and Don Hoffman of Novato.

Much of the Palm Springs meeting will be devoted to educational sessions to prepare designers for the new professional designer examination. Detail specifications, state housing requirements, engineering problems, contracts, liability and of-

During the past year the company increased its assets by nearly 42 per cent, and savings reflected a net increase of 47 per cent. A total of 545 real estate loans were made in 1960 and more than two thousand new savings accounts were opened.

MAN ON THE GO in Marin is said to be Charles Cohen of Tiburon. He started business a year ago with one taxicab and now has three. His business, called Ted's Taxi, has stations in Tiburon, at the Belvedere Board Walk, the Bel Aire Shopping Center and the Edgewater Inn, Corte Madera.

Cohen features limousine service to and from the International Airport by phone reservation 24 hours a day. He says his company operates without inter-area service charge. Rate is computed on an origin to destination basis.

FIREMEN FUME HELPLESSLY AS HOME BURNS

TOMPKINSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—While fire equipment fizzled, the home of B. O. Jackson Jr. burned.

The Jacksons were at church yesterday when their home caught fire. In order:

1. The siren used to notify volunteer firemen would not work.
2. Trying to start the fire truck, someone flooded the engine and the battery ran down.
3. Firemen pushed the truck downhill, started it, arrived at the scene, hooked a hose to a nearby hydrant and turned it on.
4. Out came a mere trickle of water. The pipeline apparently was blocked.
5. By carrying water on two more trucks, firemen saved an apartment next door belonging to Jackson's mother.

Only a freezer was rescued from Jackson's home.

Golfers Shouldn't Think Too Much; Maybe That Was Palmer's Trouble

When Arnold Palmer took a terrible 12 on the last hole in the Los Angeles Open the other day he couldn't logically explain what happened.

"I was more numb than anything," he said. "Perhaps I over-corrected after pushing two out of bounds."

Palmer's debacle—four 3-wood shots out of bounds, two sliced and two hooked—was erroneously compared to Porky Oliver's 16 and Hans Merrell's 19 on Cypress Point's famous 222-yard par 3.

The comparison was erroneous because Cypress' 16th hole is incomparable. It is not difficult to understand how the most beautiful golf hole in the world regularly exacts a heavy toll.

Oliver's 16 there in 1954 and Merrell's in 19 in 1959 during the Crosby Invitational admittedly approached the ludicrous, but still were understandable because of the very nature of the Suicidal Sixteenth, fashioned by two cliffs, one the tee, the other the green, separated by 200 yards of frothing, tossing ocean.

The hole on which the National Open champion took his 12 is a straightaway par 5, 508-yard hole of Los Angeles' Rancho Municipal Golf Course—a birdie hole for the pros. Palmer, in fact, did birdie it except for the eight penalty strokes assessed for his four OB shots.

HOW THE winner of more than $80,000 last year could go completely hawire on such a patsy hole defies explanation. Maybe, just like us hackers do, he fell into the grievous error of thinking too much about his stance or grip or swing after pushing his first fairway shot OB.

HEARTENING COMEBACK

Basilio Earns Shot At Champ Paret On March 4

NEW YORK (UPI)—Carmen Basilio, former welterweight and middleweight champion, used a persistent forcing and hooking attack Saturday night to score a heartening comeback victory on a unanimous 10-round decision over Mexican Gaspar Ortega at Madison Square Garden.

Craggy-faced Basilio, heavier than ever before in his career, earned the right to a non-title fight with welterweight champion Benny "Kid" Paret on March 4 at a site to be announced later.

Carmen, of Chittenango, N.Y., scaled 195½ pounds exactly 10 pounds more than slender Ortega's 149½.

Chairman Melvin L. Krulwich of the New York State Athletic Commission announced at the ringside that Basilio was "now under suspension and I will announce the length of the suspension on Monday."

Basilio will be suspended for at least 30 days for breaking an agreement to weigh no more than 155 pounds.

Carmen returned to the ring after a six-month layoff and after having been knocked out in his two last previous fights, both with middleweight co-champion Gene Fullmer. He showed flashes of his former prowess and appeared in much better condition than on last June 29 when he was stopped in the 12th round by Gene.

In the dressing room Carmen announced, "I'll keep on fighting. With tonight's bout under my belt, I'll be much sharper next time."

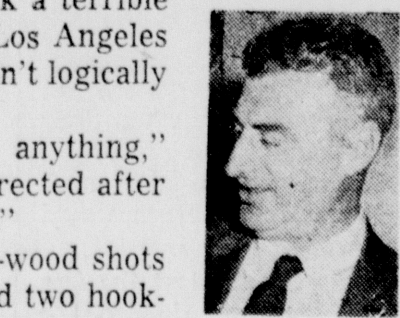

At 33, Basilio thought he

Pro Bowl Players Start Practicing

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The opposing Pro Bowl coaches, Buck Shaw of the East and Vince Lombardi of the West, send their burly squads through the first all-out practice sessions today, but neither drill will be heavy.

Both Lombardi and Shaw agreed yesterday, as they watched their players drill lightly for the photographers, that heavy workouts for Sunday's post season encounter probably would be needed.

"These are good football players, and they're smart football players," explained Lombardi, who during the regular season guided the Green Bay Packers to the Western Division crown of the National Football League. "They don't need heavy practice."

when, trying to explain what happened, said "Perhaps I over-corrected."

"Thinking too much of some part of your game," says Byron Nelson, "is fatal. No golfer can do that and score well. To win you have to forget about the mechanics of the game and concentrate 100 per cent on getting the ball into the cup in the least number of strokes."

"I never would have won anything had I been thinking of how to grip the club or where to place my feet. Whenever I won my only thoughts were of the results I wanted to obtain."

"Get the mechanics first and then just concentrate on hitting the ball."

NELSON, who averaged an incredible 68.33 for 120 rounds of PGA tournament play in 1945 and won 19 tournaments—12 of them in a row—in his last active year of 1946, still believes more major tournaments are lost than are won.

"I was the Open winner in 1939 but Sam Snead had to lose by taking a fat eight on the last hole for me to win," he recalls. "It was the other way around in the '46 Open which Lloyd Mangrum won when I missed a two-foot putt on the next to last hole."

Showdown In Torrid L.A. Open Today

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The $45,000 Los Angeles Open golf tournament reached the showdown stage today with Paul Harney leading the procession.

Harney was the first to admit that his lead was a risky one—just one stroke in front as the final 18 holes got under way.

The immediate target was the $7,500 first money for the winner.

"Sure, I wish I had a few more strokes' leeway," said the 31-year-old professional from Worcester, Mass.

Harney took over the lead Saturday with his second straight 68 for 136, and clung tenaciously to the lead with a par 71 yesterday.

Harney's nearest challengers were Leonel Hebert, a former National PGA champion and brother of the 1960 PGA champion, Jay; Bob Rosburg, no stranger to the tournament trials, and Bob Goalby, who closed out the 1960 season with a win in the Coral Gables, Fla., Open.

Two strokes behind the leader were ex-U.S. Open champion Billy Casper Jr., and two relative darkhorses, Bob Gajda, a club pro from Bloomfield Hills, Mich., and 25-year-old Tommy Jacobs, pro for the Bermuda Dunes Country Club in the Palm Springs area.

Crammed in brackets within five strokes of Harney were other dangerous threats. Included were Art Wall Jr., Ken Venturi and Ted Kroll, in the 211 group. Gary Player, Eric Monti, Jim Ferree and Tom Aaron were grouped at 210, and Eric Brown of England, Dutch Harrison and others at 212.

Evidence of Harney's tenuous position was the finish of last year's L.A. Open. Eric Monti of Los Angeles was four strokes ahead going into the final round of the 72-hole event—only to blow skyhigh and finish in a tie for seventh as Dow Finsterwald came from four behind to take the win.

Vikings Talk To Van Brocklin, But No Decision Yet

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Norm Van Brocklin wants to know more about the Minnesota Vikings' head coaching setup, and the new National Football League club is doing some cagy maneuvering of its own.

General Manager Bert Rose of the Vikings returned from the West Coast last night with these observations:

Van Brocklin, the retired Philadelphia Eagle quarterback, is interested in a coaching job and wants to know more about "what conditions would prevail" if he were offered and accepted the Viking post.

Nobody has been offered the Viking job and five men still are under consideration.

The talk Rose had with Van Brocklin in California and also his chat with Sid Gillman, the Los Angeles Charger coach, were exploratory.

More meetings are scheduled with Viking coaching prospects and the club expects to name its man within two weeks.

Little League Meet Scheduled Jan. 18

Little League board of directors of San Pedro Grammar School have scheduled a meeting Jan. 18, 8 p.m., to organize the 1961 baseball season, it was announced today.

The meeting will be held at Davidson School in San Rafael and all directors and their interested parties are urged to attend.

LEADER ESCAPES TROUBLE — Paul Harney, leading the field going into today's final round, concentrated on getting a shot away from a small tree during yesterday's third round of the Los Angeles Open. Harney carded even par 71 for a 54-hole total of 207 to take a one-stroke lead. (AP Wirephoto)

Pride Of Sausalito Cops Winter Regatta

By ALFRED MATSON

Hank Easom, the pride of Sausalito, got off to a blazing start in yesterday's Corinthian Mid-Winter Regatta and held his advantage throughout the eight-mile course to emerge the winner over the other 16 hopefuls in the Cruising Club Division.

The victory filled his cup of glory brimful. It was accomplished in his Serenade, of the Dasher Class, built in his Sausalito boatyard and he nosed out his brother, Bruce, by a mere 11 seconds. Bruce tilted the Bounty II Class Marjula owned by Dr. Larry Kinsell.

The IC Class race was won by Dr. Paul de Sylva's Icy Folly in as stirring a contest as can be expected. Of the 11 boat field the first five finished within one minute. Bob Vidmar took second place honors with the Gypsy and the Belvedere champion, Jake Wosser, handed over the command of the Rutan to his 12-year-old daughter, Susie, who sailed the boat with all the skill and aplomb of a veteran to finish third, just 12 seconds behind Vidmar.

The starting fleet of 132 boats enjoyed one of the best races of the winter season, all completing the course in less than three hours.

Finish summaries, classes in actual time, divisions corrected:

CAGE CLOWNS TO ROMP IN KENTFIELD TILT

More fun than a barrel full of monkeys!

That is the line used by a mid-western sports writer years ago to describe the Harlem Clowns, fabulous basketball wizards and court comics.

The merry madcaps of the hardwood will bring their bag of tricks to Marin County tomorrow night for a one-night performance at the College of Marin in Kentfield. Pinky's Pizza Parlor of Kentfield will oppose the Clowns starting at 8 o'clock. A preliminary game at 6 o'clock will match Redwood High School against the College of Marin junior varsity.

Tickets are priced at $1.50 for adults, $1 for students and 50 cents for children. Tickets will go on sale at 6 o'clock at the gym.

Ditka Proves Great Pro Prospect In Hawaii Bowl

HONOLULU (AP)—They voted Mike Ditka as the outstanding lineman in the East's 14-7 Hula Bowl victory over the West yesterday, but East Coach Joe Kuharich of Notre Dame rates the Pittsburgh All-America end much higher than that.

"Ditka proved that he is one of the great pro prospects of the current college seniors," Kuharich exclaimed after the upset before a crowd of 17,017.

"He can go either way. His punting was terrific and his defensive play was outstanding. I had to use him both ways when Mickey Mangham (of Louisiana State) was hurt early in the game."

Ditka caught an 11-yard touchdown pass from Georgia's Francis Tarkenton in the fourth quarter to provide the East's margin of victory. The West had led 7-6 going into the last period.

Tarkenton, who replaced Ohio State's Tom Matte in the second quarter, was voted the game's outstanding back. He threw a 10-yard paydirt pass to Kentucky's Cal Bird after an

Sixto Faces Tough, Important Bout At Kezar Tonight

California's light heavyweight boxing champion, Sixto Rodriguez, seeks revenge tonight against Kirk Barrow of Spokane, Wash., who outpointed him last year.

The two meet over the 10-round route at Kezar Pavilion, San Francisco.

Rodriguez of San Anselmo scored a sixth round knockout victory over Johnny Sullivan of England in his last bout. Barrow last year knocked out big Terry Lewis, Earl Atley and lost a decision to former Olympic champion Pete Rademacher.

Barrow is expected to enter the ring at 180 pounds with Rodriguez near the light heavy limit of 175.

Rodriguez, a tile setter when he isn't throwing leather, is entertaining world championship ambitions and feels he must win impressively tonight.

"This is the toughest and most important fight in Sixto's career," said Manager Karl Ashley of San Anselmo. "The kid must win big if he wants to move into contention for the title."

Ashley said he would ask the California State Athletic Commission to help get Sixto a title fight if he wins impressively tonight.

CHANGES TACTICS

When Rodriguez lost to Barrow last year the San Anselmo fighter was more of a defensive-minded pugilist. However, in the meantime he's switched tactics and has shown much more ferocity in the squared circle. A good indication was his impressive knockout of Sullivan last month.

Tonight's fight is the first of the year in San Francisco and looms as the most attractive bout yet in the series promoted by Lou Thomas.

Rodriguez has trained hard for this one and will be in top condition.

First preliminary bout goes on at 8:30. Five four-round preliminaries are on the card. Bargain price of $3, $2 and $1 will prevail.

60 Points In Half

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Los Angeles State scored 60 points in the second half and trounced Cal Poly of San Luis Obispo 106-77 in a basketball game Saturday.

Foul Shooting Inaccuracy Ruins Marin

Number One item on College of Marin's basketball practice agenda this week will be foul throw shooting. Coach Cal Riemcke promised his cagers today.

The Tars missed 15 foul shots Saturday night while dropping a tough 55-48 decision to Shasta College at Redding. "Tough thing about it," said Riemcke, "is that against Shasta we depended a lot on our foul shooting because we knew we'd have trouble getting shots off against their rugged defense. We had 27 foul shots, but made only 12."

He pointed out that by half-time the Tars had missed 11 charities, some of them on the one-and-one situation. This inaccuracy helped Shasta gain a 9-18 advantage at the intermission.

SEE SAW BATTLE

Marin managed to make it a see-saw game throughout the second half, but with about three minutes to go Shasta forged into a 44-22 lead for keeps. At this point Marin's Mike Rawitser fouled out and the Tars couldn't catch the hosts.

Marin clicked on 30 per cent of its floor shots, led by Lynn Lavie and Ron Blum, each with 15 points. Rounding out the Tar scoring were John Blomquist's 12 points and 3 each by Ernie Bray and Rawitser.

Marin will resume its Golden Valley Conference schedule Friday night against Sierra College at Kentfield. Marin now has one win and one loss in league play.

Judo Instruction In South Marin

Southern Marin Recreation Center in Tiburon will sponsor a series of eight judo lessons beginning tomorrow at 7 p.m., it was reported today.

Wally Jay of Alameda, recently named "Judo Coach of the Year" by northern California judo clubs, will instruct. Each weekly lesson will be for one and a half hours. A nominal fee will be charged center members and a slightly higher fee for non-members, according to Center Manager Helen Issel.

Santa Clara Lists

3 Grid Games In '61

SANTA CLARA (UPI)—Santa Clara, which seems to be converting back into a football power, had three games listed today next season.

Coach Pat Malley of the Broncos announced yesterday that they will host Occidental on Oct. 7.

Other teams already scheduled for the '61 campaign are the Cal Aggies at Davis on Sept. 23 and Chico State at Santa Clara Oct. 26. The slate is now about half complete.

Tam-Marin Top Cage Tilt Friday LAST DAY TOMORROW

By PAUL MILLER

This week's best high school basketball game should be Friday in the Tamalpais gymnasium where the Tam Indians and the Marin Catholic Wildcats—both undefeated in Marin Athletic League play—take their second of three slashes at each other this season.

Tam will have a chance to sharpen its sword tomorrow when it plays a practice game at Montgomery in Santa Rosa.

Cal-Stanford Head Schedule Tomorrow

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A crucial second week in Big Five Conference basketball action gets rolling tomorrow night at Berkeley when winless California clashes with Stanford.

The defending champion Bears, 0-2 and in last place, hope to move ahead in the standings by defeating the Indians and then UCLA at Los Angeles Saturday.

Southern California beat the Bears 65-57 for the second straight time in one of two league games Saturday night. In the other contest UCLA trimmed Washington 62-58 in Seattle, avenging an upset defeat the night before.

The red-hot Trojans, meanwhile, have a chance to take a commanding lead this weekend at Los Angeles in a pair against Washington.

Until Saturday, the Bears hadn't dropped two straight since the end of the 1958 season. Trojan John Rudometkin made the difference. The big center fouled out in the final minutes after scoring 22 points and tying Cal's Earl Shultz for high point honors.

Shultz led the Bears in shoving a USC 16-point lead to 53-51 with only 3½ minutes to go. But a key goal

Dazzling Finish By South Highlight Of Senior Bowl

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—A flock of records fell in Saturday's 12th annual Senior Bowl football game, but the frenzied windup in which the South won 33-26 is what the fans will be talking about for a while.

Here's what happened:

The South was leading 26-20 when Dick Norman of Stanford hit Fred Arbanas of Michigan State on a 29-yard pass play to give the North the ball at the South 29. On the next play, with three minutes left in the game, Norman tossed to Don Smith of Missouri at the 15 and the half-back made it the rest of the way on a sparkling

4 p.m. Also tomorrow Redwood, which upset Sir Francis Drake, 29 to 28 last Friday, will practice against the College of Marin junior varsity at 6 o'clock at Kentfield. Drake will be involved in a contest at Santa Rosa tomorrow afternoon.

Drake's second league tilt will be Friday night, against the Bulldogs at San Rafael. Both clubs lost their league openers last Friday. Before Friday's action, however, San by Vern Ashby and four free throws by Chris Appel put an end to the Cal threat.

At Seattle, the Huskies were seeking their second upset in a row and they put up a good fight all the way. Though never trailing by more than eight points, Washington never had more than a one-point lead.

The Huskies snatched a 45-44 advantage midway in the second period, erasing an eight-point deficit. The lead changed hands five more times in the next few minutes before the Uclans regained command.

Ron Lawson was high for the Bruins with 16 points. Gary Cunningham hit for 15. Client Names topped Washington's scoring with 13.

Rowe's 15 seasons in the majors saw him in one All-Star game (1936) and three World Series. His lifetime record in the big leagues was 158 victories, 101 defeats. His greatest year was 1934, when as a Tiger he won 24 games and lost 8. He was a 19-game winner in each of the next two seasons.

HOLDS RECORD

He is tied for the American League record for most consecutive games won in one season—16. They came in 1934.

In one game of the 1934 World Series against the St. Louis Cardinals, Rowe retired 22 consecutive batters. But he also tied an unenviable series record—for most defeats, 5. He won two.

His professional career began in 1932 with Beaumont in the Texas League. In 1933 he went up to Detroit and stayed, except for 1938 in Beaumont, until 1942 when he was traded to Brooklyn. He wound up the 1942 season in Montreal, then went to the Phillies where he completed his major league record in 1949.

Rowe retired from the active ranks in 1951 after managing Williamsport in the Eastern League and pitching 16 games for the seventh-place club.

Former Pitching Star Schoolboy Rowe Dies

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Schoolboy Rowe, the big, tough major league pitching great of the 1930s, died last night at his home here after suffering a heart attack.

Baseball records listed his age as 48, but his family said "Schoolie," as the players used to call him, was really 51.

Rowe, whose real name was Lynwood Thomas, was a scout for the Detroit Tigers. His major league career included nine seasons with Detroit, five with the Philadelphia Phillies, and one with Brooklyn.

He previously had served as a coach on the Tigers' staff and managed in the Detroit farm system.

Rowe was born in Waco, Tex., but grew up in El Dorado, and it was here he got the nickname Schoolboy. As a high school kid, he once pitched against and beat one of his teachers in a semi-pro game.

The headline in the El Dorado Daily News the next morning read, "Schoolboy Beats Teacher."

Owens Denies He's Quitting Huskies

HONOLULU (AP)—Jim Owens denied last night a report he may quit his football coaching job at the University of Washington.

"There's absolutely nothing to it," he told a reporter.

Owens coached the West All-Stars who lost to the East 7-14 in the Hula Bowl game Sunday.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., defeated Gardner Mulloy of Coral Gables, Fla., 4-6, 7-5, 5-7, 6-2, 9-7 for the Dixie International tennis tournament title yesterday.

Georgia's Fred Brown made a dazzling catch although apparently well covered. The clock showed seven seconds left and the South led 32-26. Dyas, holder of the NCAA season's conversion record of 13, then kicked his third extra point of the day.

Brown, the South leading rusher with 44 yards in 12 carries, scored his team's first and last touchdowns. He had circled right end in the first quarter for 10 yards and a score.

N. Carolina Coach Says 'I'm Innocent'

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Frank McGuire was close to the hot seat. Bud Wilkinson hoped to relinquish it. Tulsa and Southern California stood by ready to resume their places as members in good standing with the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

This was the situation today as the powerful 18-man NCAA council met to consider reported violations of its athletic code.

McGuire, North Carolina's successful (155 won-47 lost) basketball coach said yesterday, "I'm innocent. The school is innocent." He replied to questions concerning the NCAA's investigation of the Tar Heel's basketball recruiting program.

Wilkinson, famed football coach and athletic director of the Oklahoma Sooners, said, "I am hopeful. You know it was a long time ago. But you never know."

He spoke of a football recruiting fund in existence at Oklahoma between 1952 and 1954. Its disclosure brought indefinite probation for the Sooners last year and barred Oklahoma from postseason bowls and NCAA-controlled television.

Wilkinson's "you never know" recalled the case of Southern Cal, scheduled to be removed from probation two years ago but handed an additional two-year penalty. This time the Trojans expect to be restored to good graces, as does Tulsa, which was hit with a one-year probation the same time Oklahoma was censured.

PROBE ADMITTED

In the case of North Carolina, the NCAA had no comment. Executive Director Walt Byers finally admitted the investigation was in progress (it has been going on for a year and a half) after the Associated Press reported the appearance of McGuire and three other North Carolina representatives at yesterday's council meeting.

Byers did say, however, that he expected to make an an-

Merritt Robinson, also a board member.

The San Rafael chairman, Mrs. Sydney Heller, not only is active in the campaign but is one of the small group of women who work as volunteers at Marindale School for the orthopedically handicapped. Many children crippled by cerebral palsy attend Marindale, which is operated by the county schools and has had support from United Cere-

SAFARI SHUFFLE ON THE NILE INVITATIONS ARE IN THE MAIL

An audacious green-eyed caricature of a female mummy on papyrus-like material is in the mail. In lettering resembling hieroglyphics she says: Mummy invites you! Inside a flirtatious male mummy winks and says: And Daddy too!

The invitation is to the Safari Shuffle on the Nile Saturday Feb. 11, a benefit costume dinner dance given by Sen. and Mrs. John F. McCarthy for Rev. George D. Daly M.M., a Maryknoll Missioner in Africa. In green ink suggesting the atmosphere of the Nile the invitation reads: Enchanting dinner dance in the Land of the Pharaohs (Meadow Club, Fairfax, "Old Kingdom") will offer cocktails and hors d'oeuvres at seven p.m.; "Middle Kingdom" will feature dinner and entertainment at 8:30 p.m.; "New Kingdom" invites you to dancing at 9 p.m. Date in the "Late Kingdom" is Saturday, Feb. 11; Costumes, Egyptian; Music by a well known orchestra.

Adorning the mummy case are hieroglyphics. A translation reveals a story of Father Daly building a hostel for Lepers. Donation for a couple is entitled: "Anthony and Cleopatra". The "Pharaoh's Treasure" is offered to those who cannot attend but who would like to help Father Daly build a hostel for Lepers by contributing something.

On the back of the invitation are depicted nine sassy Egyptians representing Sen. and Mrs. McCarthy and their seven children. Each has something to say: "Please make reservations by Feb. 2 and checks payable to Maryknoll Fathers and mail to the McCarthy Dynasty, 21 Pepper Way, San Rafael.

Lucienne Bloch Guest Speaker At Triple C January Luncheon Meet

"Creation of a Work of Art," a talk by Mill Valley artist Lucienne Bloch Dimitroff illustrated with slides, was the program which followed the Mill Valley Community Church Club's January luncheon meeting Wednesday in the parish hall.

After her introduction by Mrs. H. W. Symmes as a person having a creative approach to people as well as art, Mrs. Dimitroff began her discussion by explaining how contemporary art differs in approach from that of preceding periods.

In her own early training, she said, she had accepted the traditional idea that an artist before starting a work should be able to imagine what it would look like when completed.

The contemporary approach, on the other hand, she said, is spontaneous and more like that of the primitive cave paintings in which the shapes of animals are now thought to have been tracings of animal-like shadows created on the walls by fire-light.

"The artist has come back to the primitive," Mrs. Dimitroff declared. "He allows accidents in his medium to come into play in what he is doing and very often doesn't know exactly what he will have at the end."

The same procedure, she went on, was sometimes used by Leonardo Da Vinci in what is now called, among other terms, the drip-blob method.

BLANK WALL

He would sit in front of a blank wall, she continued, and see designs suggested by such accidental elements as cracks and fissures and weathering of different coats of paint.

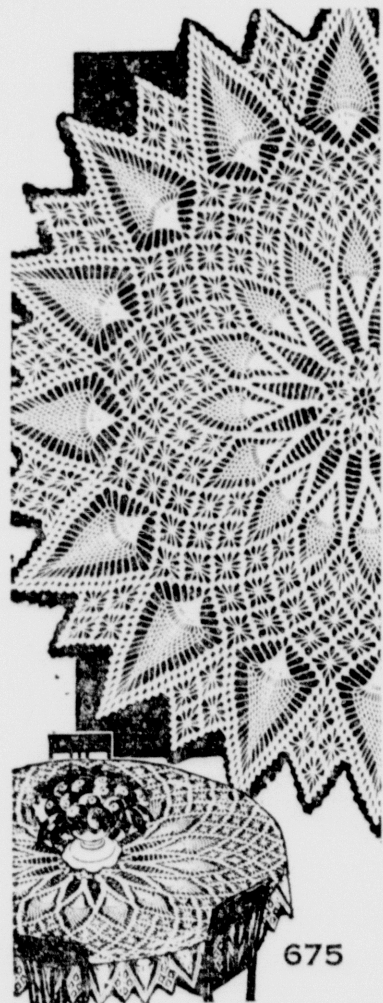

At first the artist said she fought against this approach when she was attending "a reactionary school" until she could see that in trying to imagine a completed painting the inevitable result is to see something that has already been done by someone else. This hampers originality, she pointed out.

"The traditional approach has its place, however, she conceded, for "Both are important ways of painting."

Since she is noted especially as a muralist, Mrs. Dimitroff illustrated how the idea for a work of art is born by describing the origin of her designs for the walls of a music room in New York City's George Washington High School.

She said she had some misgiving in using the slides she had made of various stages of these murals because she had changed so much since 1937, when they were done under the W.P.A. program, which she called "One of the greatest blossoming times for American art."

Nevertheless the designs did show, even though they had to be completed before they could be transferred to the wall, how they evolved from sound wave patterns, musical instrument shapes, human figures and other elements.

PAINTING MURALS

As an example of her use of the contemporary spontaneous procedure in painting murals, Mrs. Dimitroff mentioned those she had done at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. She found from that experience, she said, that the method is too difficult for murals.

For the luncheon chairmanship by Mrs. Adren Aitken, Mrs. John Hurley used deep pink camellias and heather in table decorations. Assisting Mrs. Aitken were Mesdames Robert Cook, Mills Calahan, Joseph Goulding, T. H. Halleck, Carlton Banigan and Jeanette Harris and Miss Lois Walker.

During the business meeting conducted before the program president Mrs. Gilbert Barnes announced that Miss Walker had agreed to serve throughout the remainder of the year in the recording secretary position formerly held by Mrs. Don Porter.

Mrs. Barnes also read the words of the hymn "I Would Be True" as the inspirational message to open the year and described the progress of the new "Friends Unlimited."

Formed for the purpose of establishing a service group whose members can be called on in emergencies, it now has 26 members, seven of whom expressed willingness to do anything needed. Others signed up for special kinds of services.

Crafty Clothes For The Sea-Farers

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

Once upon a time no woman ever went sailing before summer unless her ship came in. Today we know that this is just a fairy tale.

What with jet travel, pay-later plans, and winter vacation schedules, nearly every working girl can set her sights on a cruise, weather or not, good fortune or modest.

Once upon a time too females aboard ship were considered bad luck. Undoubtedly, this was because the ladies then were at sea about what to wear.

Even today any landlubber putting on sea legs for the first time can be unlucky if she does not wear the proper attire. Women loathe to forsake their usual garments in favor of nautical wear alternately burn and freeze, lose their hats, and get their billowing skirts tangled in the tackle.

Fortunately today's fashion-makers are charting a safe and practical course for cruising. They've been on boats, too, so that they know that a ship-shape wardrobe must be:

WEATHER-CONTROLLED

A rich suntan is part of the rewards of sailing, but dangerous burns happen faster with the salty breezes to help. Consequently, a cover-up jacket for sunsuit and swim suit is a must for the duffel bag.

Licking hot weather changes to chill, ill winds quicker than it takes the sun to duck behind a cloud. Therefore, a smart sailor needs something wooly warm to slip on or wrap around.

WATER-REPELLANT

All hands on deck get soaked regularly. But many fabrics used for cruisewear are chemically treated to ignore the salty dew like ducks' backs.

WORKABLE

Whether the she-sailor helps hoist the sails or casts a line for some helpless fish on board with her, her clothes have to be practical.

On a boat any size she must stretch, step, slide, leap and jump around a slippery deck with the wind whipping at her all the time. This fast action modestly calls for shorts, culottes or clam digger plus top-pers and jackets with plenty of underarm leeway for movement.

A wet deck also requires true canvas boat sneakers with non-slip rubber soles.

Of course a tourist matey can be glamorous as well as practical. Vibrant color that rival the sun and sea do the trick. Denims, sail cloth, terrycloth, cotton and wool jerseys, some miraculously stretchable, are fabrics that lean on color contrast for design.

A few florals sneak into the bathing suit picture but generally the pattern of fashion are bold blocks, triangles and wide stripes makes a lady sailor a pretty sight in anyone's periscope.

With these go hats, caps, or scarves, gay hair-cover-ups that preserve a girl's hard-earned coiffure.

Generally, a good sea-farer leaves her make-up at home, and substitutes instead her sun-tan oil. Whatever she brings it must be as lightweight and as little as possible.

Sailing is not roughing it really. It can go smoothly indeed for the smart vacationer who gets her signals straight and picks her wardrobe well.

Modern Dance Coop Registration Open

Registrations are now being accepted for the spring classes of the San Rafael Modern Dance Cooperative, under the direction of Ann Halprin, with A. A. Leath, instructor.

Classes are held at 10 a.m. on Tuesdays, at Carpenter's Hall on Lindaro Street in San Rafael. Instruction is in modern dance technique, with music-toning exercises. There will be a half-hour class in improvisation and creative dance after the hour of exercise instruction. For further information, call Mrs. Abbott E. Stinchcomb.

Two New Groups Blue Birds Join Ranks In Twin Cities

Two new groups of Blue Birds in the Larkspur-Corte Madera area have joined the ranks of the many other groups in District 2.

The Poppy Blue Birds chose their name to coincide with the Golden Jubilee project of the Camp Fire Girls, that of planting California poppies throughout the county. One of the first meetings of these new Blue Birds was spent in selecting sites in Corte Madera and Larkspur that would benefit from the added color of poppies this Spring, and at a later date, had the pleasure of planting the seeds.

Mrs. Catherine Hansen, the leader of the group, has a deep interest in nature study, and the girls will profit from this interest in many ways. Members of the Poppy Blue Birds are: Nancy Brewster, Kathleen Dinsmore, Diane Gardiner, Helen Hansen, Suzanne Joy, Claudia Leslie, Linda Mitchell, and Karen Rossi.

The Sweet Blue Birds in Corte Madera organized recently with Mrs. Thereshina M. Sill as their leader. Mrs. Sill brings a colorful and exciting career in television and radio as background for her leadership. She lived in Brazil until a short time ago, and until she came to California, had her own television show which she produced and directed. She is directing the Blue Bird group, along with a troop of Cub Scouts, in a musical revue, complete with costumes that she has designed and made for each child. Mrs. Sill plans to make a movie of this original production, entitled "Gigi Films", which she hopes to show to service clubs, and other interested groups later this Spring.

Rehearsal for the revue has not been their only activity, but has been a supplement to the regular Blue Bird program. Members of the Sweet Blue Bird group are: Shelley Chisholm, Theresa Feerick, Diane Mench, Denise Miller, Cathy O'neil, Shelley Osborne, Cynthia Perry, Ludmilla Sill, Kay Simon, Cheryl Zion.

All of the new Blue Bird groups had the pleasure of joining with the entire membership of District 2 in the Blue Bird Christmas party which was held in the Kent School multi-purpose room, Kentfield before Christmas.

All groups who participated brought a white gift for others, which this year was canned food, to be used in making up food baskets for needy families in the county. The baskets were distributed through one of the churches in the district. Christmas carols were sung, and refreshments of cookies and chocolate were served.

Book Topic For Marin Terrace P-TA

"Criterion for Children's Books" will be the topic of the panel discussion at Mill Valley's Marin Terrace P-TA meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Members of the panel will be Mesdames Edith Thacher Hurd, William Thorpe, Gordon Farnsworth and Dr. Logan Miles.

Mrs. Hurd, who has collaborated with her husband, Clement Hurd, in many children's books, is the author of the recently published "Golden Hind." Mrs. Thorpe, formerly on the staff of a San Francisco newspaper as a children's book critic, is a noted children's storyteller and has made recent appearances on TV Station KQED.

Mrs. Farnsworth is familiar to many parents and children as the librarian in the children's section of the Mill Valley Library, and Dr. Miles is principal of Marin Terrace and Tamalpais Valley Schools.

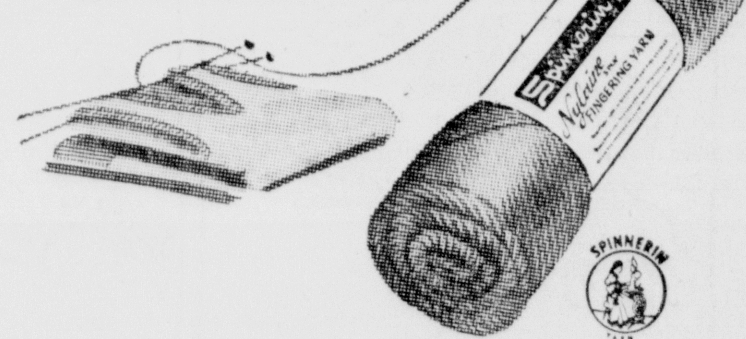

The informal panel discussion will center around the six to ten-year-old mind. The Library Club of America's program will be explained, and some of the newer additions to the Marin Terrace library will be on display.

After the P-TA presents second grade Brownie Troop 76 with a new 50-star flag and staff, the troop will lead the flag ceremony.

During a short business meeting conducted by P-TA president Mrs. E. J. Ross, a nominating committee will be selected for new officers. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

Can't The Civil War Help Us Understand The Congo?

Just 100 years ago today, George E. Haynsworth, a cadet at The Citadel, a Southern military academy, fired a cannon and missed the steamer "Star of the West" in Charleston Harbor.

The Civil War had started.

The "Star of the West" was carrying 200 Union soldiers destined for besieged Fort Sumter. The shots from Citadel-manned cannons on Morris Island and from secessionists holding Fort Moultrie failed to hit the side-wheel steamer, but she turned and ran, her United States flag still flying.

Four years of bitter war followed that first shot. The battle to divide the nation was brutal and damaging. Even today, a century later, there are scars which are tender when touched.

As a nation at that time, we were already 70 years old. We had had 16 Presidents and had grown from the original 13 states to encompass territory which contained every state in the nation today, except Alaska and Hawaii.

If we would think back in our history, therefore, it might help us to understand a little better what is happening in the Congo, in Latin America, maybe even in Cuba.

Our Civil War was not capricious. It was based on firm beliefs on both sides; beliefs strong enough to die for. The South believed that it was more important to stand by their convictions and to rule themselves than it was to preserve the Union. The North believed that the basic values and freedoms represented in the U.S. Constitution should not be threatened through destruction of the nation.

Can't we then get some idea of what is happening in, say, the Congo? Here independence has more or less been thrust upon the people. Only the leaders have any conception of what political freedom means. The populace had no understanding of the responsibilities as well as the privileges which freedom brings. They had not had 70 years experience living as a free people.

Is it any wonder then that there is no unity, no national spirit, no acceptance of necessary rules and limitations on conduct? Is it any wonder rival leaders spring up, each fanatically followed by a coterie variously motivated by national or personal goals?

Are we too far away from our own Revolution, from our own Civil War to understand these things? Can't we reach way back in our memories and our archives to bring out understanding sympathy? Can't we reconstruct the feelings of these peoples and move to aid them from this foundation?

We think that we can. And further, on this centennial anniversary of our most dreadful war, we call upon our government to consider the basic desires of the people of the developing nations, not political expediency, in charting our national policies.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

TIME IS SHORT, ETERNITY LONG

Dinosaurs appear to have caught an increasing portion of the public eye this year, although no one can give the reason.

"We get letters and we get telephone calls," said Dr. Edwin Colbert of New York's American Museum of Natural History, "from both men and women, and of course, children too. Big animals just seem to fascinate people."

Some of these creatures reached a height of 80 feet and could have towered over a 3-story building.

About 70,000,000 years ago the big things

"suddenly" disappeared, according to Dr. Colbert, who explained that "sudden," geologically speaking, meant thousands of years.

Every time science tells us something about the vastness of the world we are reminded of the shortness of life and the majesty of almighty God.

Try to cram as many good actions as you can into your short stay on earth.

"How great are Thy works, O Lord! Thou hast made all things in wisdom."

(Psalm 103:24)

Keep our eyes directed on all things from the perspective of eternity, O Lord.

Want To Clean Out Closets? Import 450 Hungry Moths

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

If your wife is looking for a good lazy way to clean out an old clothes closet, tell her just to toss 450 moths in it and shut the door. . . . Theoretically the offspring of the moths in a year can eat fabrics equal in weight to a diesel locomotive.

No wonder it's so hard for many of us to see our way clear. . . . Some 90 million Americans have the vision problem called astigmatism.

The good old days: In 1834 Delmonico's, later a world-renowned restaurant, printed the first known bill of fare in this country. . . . Sample items: Cup of coffee, one cent; soup, two cents; beef stew, four cents; ham and eggs or roast chicken, a dime—and a full meal 12 cents!

Even if you're a film fan, it's an odds-on bet you can't name the first all-talking movie. . . . It was "Light of New York," made in 1928.

Geography lesson: There is a village in Scotland called "Peace and Plenty."

Most fires start in homes, but in 1959 fire damaged or destroyed 3,000 churches. . . . Fires break out in eight to 10 U.S. churches every day.

A footgear manufacturer claims leather treated with a special plastic will enable it to wear five times as long. . . . Now if someone will just develop another plastic that will make children's feet grow five times as slowly, the average parent will feel he can keep the kids in shoes without bankrupting the family.

Alexander Graham Bell might be pelted to know that a researcher here found most New Yorkers hear better with their left than their right ears. . . . The possible reason: They spend so much time with their left ear glued to a telephone it develops more acuity.

Mother Nature, not man, invented the first submarine snorkel. . . . For untold ages elephants have been able to walk across the bottoms of rivers by thrusting their trunks to the surface and using them as breathing tubes.

WISCRACK OF the week: Comic Jack Wakefield defines a bikini as—the little bit that isn't bare!

Hint to housewives: To help your husband when he starts his usual struggle to fill out his income tax form, why not paint his study in blue and scarlet stripes? . . . It has been found that blue-painted walls quiet violent mental patients, and red walls cheer up severe cases of depression.

JITTERY MONARCH: King Henry II was so nervous he couldn't sit at a table. . . . and always ate his meals standing up.

Speaking of food, did you know that some desert people in Africa and Asia still roast and grind locusts and mix them with flour to make bread?

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Even I-J Has A Tender Craw

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

According to Roget's Thesaurus, a synonymic phrase for "excerpt" is "separate the sheep from the goats." How true, how true! The Tam Board was more polite than the I-J. At the Dec. 19 meeting they thanked me for conforming to their policy of requesting page number and passages of material to which I had objection, for which I duly and publicly expressed my gratification.

Question: When is an excerpt not an excerpt? When the I-J reports the news, or when you don't quote from these books (it's illegal to print filth), or when you don't use all those perfectly acceptable English words in the Bible, as I noted in my Tam Board letter (you plagiarists), which neatly expose and advocate against evil, because that would spoil your argument?

To poof with the authors' intents, be they white as the driven snow, which they aren't! They are green and marked "This is legal tender, Treasurer of the United States." To poof with adult tastes and selection.

I am concerned with one thing only. The intent of those school book selectors! A society that does not protect its young from exploitation is already doomed, as history attests well.

Thank you, thank you, I-J! At last the "so-called" obscene books have become just plain "purple" and "dirty." Methinks even the I-J, you men of the world, has a tender and reachable craw, where filth that is filth yet rankles!

I-J Should Print Books' Quotes

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

In regard to the controversy over "Catcher In The Rye" and "Of Mice and Men," at Redwood High School, I challenge the Independent-

Journal to either print Anne Smart's letter to the Tamalpais Union High School Board, or otherwise reproduce the questionable passages.

If these works are acceptable influences for accepting teenage minds, then surely they are fit to print in your newspaper.

MRS. MARYROSE EAGER San Rafael

(NOTE: The only proper way to publish the "questionable passages" in context would be to publish the entire books, which already has been done.)

There's Vital Difference In Senate, House Majority Rules Debates

WASHINGTON — In each House of Congress there are formidable obstacles to the rule of simple majorities, and the question is how far these obstacles are to be reduced or removed.

The problem in the House is different from the problem in the Senate. The difference involves an important difference of principle, and indeed of the spirit and the intent of the Constitution itself.

THE PROBLEM in the House does not, as in the Senate, arise from the power of a minority to prevent legislation by a filibuster. The House does not have unlimited debate. The problem there arises from the fact that the Rules Committee has almost absolute power of life and death over bills before they can be voted upon. There may be a majority in favor of a bill. Unless the Rules Committee permits it, the majority cannot bring the bill to a vote.

IN RECENT YEARS the Rules Committee has had 12 members — eight of them Democrats and four of them Republicans. But two of the Democrats, Howard W. Smith of Virginia and William M. Colmer of Mississippi, have formed an alliance with the four Republicans, thus dividing the committee six to six.

This prevents it from acting affirmatively and enables the conservative coalition to block not only civil rights legislation but all manner of so-called progressive legislation. It is impossible, I think, to defend this arrangement on the ground of principle. The House represents the people of the United States; its spirit is that there the simple numerical majority should prevail.

THE PROBLEM of the Senate, on the other hand, involves questions of high constitutional principle. The crux

Little Greek Leprechaun Gave Up Grocery To Develop Boat Harbor

There is a little leprechaun who stays in a hut on a levee in Richardson Bay by day. He disappears by night to San Francisco where he lives with his wife and two daughters. He uses the name George Kappas.

He is short, wears green clothing and his grayish hair stretches out in back as if it were Irish. But it's not. Kappas is Greek. His eyes sparkle as if he knew something which no one else knows.

Visitors to Marin can see the leprechaun's hut behind a tiny lagoon as they sail down Highway 101 from Waldo Grade. He owns and leases 75 acres of land, mostly under water, which stretches from the Clipper Yacht Co. on the south to Richardson Bay Bridge on the north.

WE TOLD THE leprechaun, who is very friendly, that we had driven by his haunts hundreds of times and the thing that impressed us most was (1) it's a beautiful spot for a small boat harbor, and (2) it's never located anywhere near like shipshape.

"What are all of these things sticking up?" we asked. "Don't you like Marin County?"

He smiled and said he loves Marin County. He said "Yes, it is untidy." And he said that in the levee and protruding from it are three barges, some old car wrecks, cement chunks, some old cans and tires and some tree limbs. There is also a sign "no dumping."

"THE REASON for the ragged levee which surrounds the lagoon," Kappas said, is that "in order to build the levee, I found I had to use brush and other items to hold the fill. I expect to have the place shipshape in five or six months."

Kappas said he used to be in the grocery business, but found this land and went into developing. "My friends laughed at me when I bought an underwater subdivision," he said. That was nine years ago.

One year ago he began renting slips to boaters and now rents 125. Plans are for 400 boats.

"It's costly," said Kappas. "They raised my taxes five times. But I like it here. I think the county should let the private property owners develop the area instead of the county. I'm not against the county. I like the county."

WE WALKED OUT to the end of Kappas' long dock, passing the finger piers where boats rocked gently, to within about 500 feet of Strawberry Point. It was cold.

"That's where Sam Neider wants to build his Tower apartments," Kappas said. We could almost reach out and touch the scrub oaks on the hillside.

"Last year I was going to put in a Disneyland on my property," Kappas said. "All the property owners went along with it except Bob Law who owned the airport."

"I like it here," said the leprechaun. "I sleep well. I eat well."

Well, we said, we are all developers, some greater than others.

HENRY FOSTINE, Mill Valley superintendent of streets, was remarking the other day that he feels kind of sorry for the three gray guinea hens who live on the marshlands.

"They are cold," he said. When disturbed, they take off and fly over Project 17 and the Methodist Church, making a funny sharp, shrill cry. They return at night to roost in their weeping willow tree.

They eat vegetables, said Honorary Chief Guinea Hen Tender Fostine, and greens and cracked corn.

AT CHRISTMAS TIME there was a dog who became attached to the men at the Mill Valley Market. He became their friend for three weeks, winning the hearts of the meat market men especially.

Then the dog, part Irish Terrier, part Shetland and part Collie, was arrested and taken to the Humane Society.

The men in Mill Valley chipped in $10 to bail him out, get him some shots, a collar, identification and now are getting him a good home. They call him Pal.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

John Parker tells about a prosperous planter in Kentucky who decided to run for governor. He wasn't much on speech making, but he played the violin very well indeed, and backwoods voters flocked to listen to him.

Then his opponent, a no-holds-barred politician, made a valuable discovery. The planter played the fiddle left-handed. From that day on, the politician's chief campaign argument was, "When my aristocratic opponent plays for his millionaire friends in the big cities, he plays right-handed. But when he comes here to see you country folk — nature's noblemen, the salt of the earth, the backbone of Kaintucky — what does he do? He plays left-handed. He thinks that's good enough for you. He thinks you're too dumb to know the difference!"

After that all the planter's protestations that he was naturally left-handed were drowned in boos and catcalls. He was lucky to escape with his life.

A Call To Do Battle Against Pornography In Paperback Books

I've been reading some of the paperback books our more daring young people buy. You should see them!

Ordinary love is too tame. Perversions are the rage, and nothing is too revolting. I found these abnormalities:

Homosexuality: In several of the books boys love boys and girls love girls. Some of the characters love either sex indiscriminately.

Sadism: This abnormality appears in many stories. Brutal boys enjoy whipping girls or cutting them with knives. Big strong girls use cat-o-nine-tails on weakling boys.

Masochism: The other side of sadism is masochism. In these books the victims of the sadists find they enjoy the pain. They ask for more.

Necrophilia: To me this is the crowning horror. In one of the books a delinquent boy finds he loves dead bodies. Thereafter he kills to indulge himself.

Do you approve of such subjects? Emphatically I don't.

I know teen-agers. Probably 20 per cent of them are emotionally disturbed, suggestible and lack restraint. I can testify that such books have caused sex delinquency.

I know that censorship is unpopular. Anyone who says a book is too dirty to be sold is labeled a "bluenose."

Even so I think it's time to crack down on the worst of the pornographic paperback books. If you agree, will you join one of the religious groups now agitating for stronger legislation against pornography? You can contact them through your church.

Ignore the name-callers and do all you can to protect our children.

READERS' FORUM
(Q) "I thought that pornography couldn't be sent through the mails. Was I wrong?" S.R.

(A) Adverse court decisions have made postal laws and regulations much less effective than they used to be. However the worst of the books being published this year are not sent through the mail. They're shipped all over the country as freight, on private contracts.

$100,000 Suit Alleges Husband Was Electrocuted

A $100,000 suit was filed against Yolo Flyway Farms Inc. of Marin County Friday by a Sausalito woman who claimed her husband was electrocuted by a defective electric pump at a duck club owned by the company.

Mrs. Marie R. Souza of 195 Woodward Avenue, Sausalito, filed suit in Marin County Superior Court yesterday through her attorney, Harry P. Glassman of San Rafael.

She charged her husband, Vasco John Souza, was duck hunting at the club near Dixon in Solano County on Aug. 31 when he leaned against the pump and was killed.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Who Must File Return? Here Are Regulations

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

You must file a federal income tax return for 1960 if you are under 65 and had gross income of $600 or more, or over 65 and had gross income of $1,200 or more.

You must file a federal income tax return regardless of whether you owe tax or not, and it does not matter whether you are a man, woman or child; you are required to file a return before Monday, April 17, 1961.

It may be that you had income of less than $600 (or $1,200) and income tax was withheld from your paychecks. In this case, you should file a tax return. It will show that you owe no tax and Uncle Sam will refund the withheld tax.

Also, if your income was from self-employment and was more than $400 you are required to file an income tax return and report and pay your self-employment tax even though you do not owe income tax.

These columns are intended to help you in a general way with the questions about your income and deductions and to give information of a general nature so you will be aware of the savings that may be open to you. Each taxpayer has individual circumstances and individual problems.

If you have a specific problem you should consult the accountant of your choice as early as possible so that he will have plenty of time to prepare your tax return properly.

Peter J. Wikel

Named Director

John F. Williams of 1546 Buchanan Street, Novato, senior accountant with Price Waterhouse and Co., San Francisco, has been appointed a director of the San Francisco Chapter of the National Assn. of Accountants.
